THE DESIGN OF THE INSTITUTION.

It is intended to give to both sexes a thorough course of education, equal to that of our best Eastern colleges, guarding well the moral and religious life of the students, ever directing them in the pursuit of that learning and culture of heart and mind that make the finished scholar. This institution is well fitted for this, being under the control and direction of the Presbyterian Church. Yet, while it is denominational, it does not aim to be sectarian, opening its doors to all lovers of truth and learning.

THE POSITION OF THE COLLEGE.

Whitworth College is situated at Sumner, in the central part of Western Washington, in the beautiful Puyallup Valley, surrounded with mountain scenery calculated to give inspiration to the artist and the lover of the beautiful in nature.

Mount Rainier, or Tacoma, rises up in the distance 14,444 feet above the sea level, with her eternal snow and winter, as the proud sentinel of the many productive valleys around her, always inviting the admiration of the tourist and soliciting the speculations of the scientist.

The climate in this part of Washington is salubrious and healthful. The town is well supplied with clear, sparkling water brought from the springs of the foot hills of the Cascade Mountains.

One of the particular advantages of the College is that of its position between the two great cities of the Northwest, being twelve miles from Tacoma and twenty-eight from Seattle. Access to the college is therefore easy by water and rail. Another very important feature of its location is that it is situated at such a distance from these cities as to have many advantages from their growth in material greatness, yet free from many of those disturbing elements that so detract from a close application to the duties of student life.

The moral tone of Sumner has a reputation above that of any city or town on the Pacific Coast. It is free from saloon influences and is surrounded by a very intelligent, active and enterprising people.

The building is a fine three story structure of modern style of architecture and furnished in all of its apartments for the comfort and accommodation of students, having fine and capacious grounds for their exercise and amusement.

SPECIAL REMARKS ON THE COURSES OF STUDY.

BIBLICAL INSTRUCTION.

There will be short lectures on certain portions of the Scripture every Monday morning, at which all the students are expected to be present. It is designed to make the Bible one of the central objects of study. There will also be special lectures on sacred history throughout the year, designed to stimulate the student in the study of the philosophy of historic facts.

LECTURES.

Arrangements have been made for a series of lectures on Political Economy, Physiology and Hygiene, such as will give the students practical ideas of these important branches of learning, helping them on in their research and study of the text book of the class room.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

This department is calculated to prepare students for the classical and scientific courses of study, and includes all the studies that are required for examination and admission to the Freshman class.

NORMAL DEPARTMENT.

This department is intended to give students a thorough knowledge of all the English branches necessary for the teachers in our public schools.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

The object and aim of this department is to give as thorough an education as can be had in any school of the Pacific Coast. Competent teachers have charge of this department and will be able to lead the student through those difficulties which so often give discouragement to the beginner.

ART DEPARTMENT.

Students in this department will be admitted, if prepared, and they have time, to classes in any of the other departments of the College, giving them an opportunity to take up some of the higher branches.

Special care has been taken in the selection of a teacher of art—one that has had a thorough training in all the technicalities that belong to the work of the professional artist. We will now be able to give such instruction to students as will merit the patronage of the lover of fine art.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT.

This department is intended to give a sound, practical drill in mathematics, letter writing, punctuation and penmanship, before there is an attempt at theoretical and practical book-keeping. There will also be given students an opportunity to study shorthand.

CLASSICAL DEPARTMENT.

Candidates for admission to Freshman Class must pass satisfactory examinations in the following branches :

1. Latin.—Grammar: Translation at sight of passages from Cicero or Cæsar ; Virgil, first six books, or their equivalent.

2. Greek Grammar.—Translation of English into Greek at sight; Xenophon's Anabasis, four books.
3. Mathematics.—Arithmetic; Algebra to quadratic equations; Geometry, three books.
4. History of United States.
