The Natsihi

"Among the Pines"

An Almanac for 1938

published by the

Junior Class

for the Associated Student Body

Whitworth College

Spokane, Washington

Foreword . . .

A decidedly egotistical little man shows you through the NATSIHI . . . "An Almanac for 1938" . . . he was overjoyed when asked to help . . . wears a bright scarlet coat . . . has white woolen hair . . . no more need be said of him . . . he can write for himself . . . Mr. Doodle on page 7 thinks of all he has in store for you.

THE EDITOR.

The Almanac

It always hung upon the kitchen wall—

A book of magic where his parents found

*Their guiding signs . . .
he marveled at them all . . .*

*And how the distant sky
could rule the ground . . .*

He wished his schoolbooks answered everything

With such precision of the day and night . . .

When weather favored . . . and what signs would bring

*Assurance that the plans
he made were right . . .*

*When he grew up . . .
twelve signs no longer seemed*

Enough to cover all he had in mind . . .

*Sometimes the book
predicted fair—rain teemed . . .*

*Things planted right . . .
grew thick and bitter rind . . .*

Sometimes he wished for magic leading back

Around the circuit of the Zodiac . . .

SEPTEMBER

September . . .

Those first days on the campus
. . . when I arrived, I found the faculty ready to welcome their students
. . . old and new . . . for another year
. . . never could have predicted how much would be accomplished before May 27 . . . who can tell how many persons have learned of true success?

Yours truly,

MR. DOODLE.

The Prexy's Word . . .

Time marches on . . . from the calendar of time we remove four years of our college training . . . they are the best years . . . for they enrich our lives so that the remainder of the calendar left for our use can be made glorious . . . full for man and God . . . we live . . . not by years . . . or months . . . or days or hours . . . but by experiences of thought and deed . . . in service for all . . . thus Whitworth College contributes to life.

Dean
F. T. Hardwick . .

At the head of the educational division . . . our Dean . . . adviser of the A. S. W. C. officers . . . Business adviser of the Natsihi for 1938 . . . counselor for the men of the college . . . possessor of the most dreaded carpet in the college . . . in spite of this . . . the willing friend of everyone.

Dean Marion R. Jenkins . . .

Supervisor of the restless dorms . . . mother to all homesick girls . . . adviser of the Pirettes . . . and of the Christian Endeavor . . . gifted speaker on numerous subjects . . . her more formal duty . . . that of caring for the "general welfare" of the coeds . . . the problem that she can't settle . . . isn't worth settling.

Valiant Whitworth

John Finney

Copyright, 1938, by Mercedes Warren

Lively

For Whitworth, our valiant Whitworth, Let our banners spotless fly.

On all fields of active sport or mental height still Whitworth will be victor.

Whitworth, we're ever near thee. We will all help take the day. For Whitworth fight, for Whitworth fight, for Whitworth fight and fighting win.

The score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a rhythmic bass line in the left hand and harmonic support in the right hand. The lyrics are: "For Whitworth, our valiant Whitworth, Let our banners spotless fly. On all fields of active sport or mental height still Whitworth will be victor. Whitworth, we're ever near thee. We will all help take the day. For Whitworth fight, for Whitworth fight, for Whitworth fight and fighting win." The tempo is marked "Lively".
