Dedication

To the trustees of Whitworth College, this 1950 yearbook is a dedicatorial volume of gratitude—to those who served on the board in years past and those serving in this year of our 60th Anniversary.

Since the beginning of the college in 1890, Whitworth has made remarkable achievements, now being recognized as a standard four-year college of liberal arts and sciences devoted to the task of Christian education. Pre-professional courses are offered in law, medicine, the ministry, social work, business administration, nursing and in teaching.

Such progress has been stimulated by the interest and encouragement of the succeeding boards of trustees throughout the history of our college.

We, the staff of this year's NATSIHL, with our fellow students, are saying "thanks" to you—the trustees.

Foreword

Beyond this page, in the form of print, pictures, and art are captured the spirit of events and activities depicting campus life at Whitworth College in its 60th anniversary. As this bound record is observed in the future, may it serve as a link to the past years of college days.

ADMINISTRATION

Peggy O'Connor

FRANK E. WARREN, M.A., D.D.

A SALUTE TO THE PAST – A TOAST TO THE FUTURE

Sixty years ago the idea of a Christian academy and college was conceived in the Northwest, and Whitworth Academy was established at Sumner, Washington. Ten years later it was moved to Tacoma as a college. Then it came to Spokane, where today it stands as a great monument to Christian leadership and statesmanship.

We salute the past—and we would pay a special homage to the men who have made up its Board of Trustees these many years—ministers and laymen who have given freely of their time and influence as they have guided well the destiny of a small, struggling college. Too, there are the teachers who have invested their lives in the instructing and guidance of Christian training of youth. Especially, are we thankful for men of more recent years who were members of the faculty and who touched the student life of this generation, such as Dr. J. W. Countermine, for so many years head of the Bible Department, and Dr. Francis T. Hardwick, teacher extraordinary, efficient dean, and acting president. Their tasks are done and we salute them as we celebrate our sixtieth anniversary.

As we look forward to the future, we envision not necessarily a larger student body, but a stronger student body that shall study on our campus. We see men and women coming from all parts of the world to Whitworth. We see the influence of the college reaching out until through its alumni it shall touch a world in its need. We see graduates in an ever-expanding number taking places of leadership in all walks of life. Only then can Whitworth realize its destiny as one of the truly great Christian colleges of the nation.

DR. FRANK F. WARREN.

Dean of the College

Dean Merton Munn takes an active interest in the faculty, the students and the activities of the college. He works with the president in hiring new faculty members and is head of the instruction department; works out the curriculum and also teaches. "Mert" is a wise counselor in guiding students.

Dean of Women

Miss Marion R. Jenkins has a sincere interest in the women at Whitworth. She has an infallible memory for names, and is always ready to give help and advice when called upon. She arranges housing for those students first entering school, and you will also find her teaching Bible classes.

Dean of Men

Dr. Theron Maxson is the guiding hand for the men at Whitworth, and all those who need counseling. A friend to all those he meets around the campus, he helps solve the housing problem for many students, and instructs several classes.

Administration

Business Manager John L. Oakes handles the finances at Whitworth College. His office figures student accounts, and gives student credit for work done around the campus. His office pays the bills incurred by the college. Mr. Oakes is understanding to the financial problems arising with students.

Miss Estella Baldwin, Registrar for the college, is well known to the students at Whitworth. She evaluates student credits, guides them toward graduation. Has a deep interest in the students enrolled. She received her degree from Whitworth.

Bruce McCullough is the Public Relations man at Whitworth. He makes valuable contacts with business and professional men in the vicinity and keeps the college in the public eye. His office also keeps in contact with alumni.

CLASSES

Flossie Jones

THE CLASS OF 1950

Les Kirkendorfer, president; Beverly Anderson, secretary.
Ray Johnson, treasurer; Graley Taylor, vice-president.

Sleepy-eyed but hungry seniors invaded the "Commons" October 12 for the traditional waffle breakfast.

Bob Walton and Bob Rhinehart shared the role of the determined Jonathan Rockwood in the homecoming play, "January Thaw." Other class members in the cast were Bunny Gwinn, Bill Gwinn, Gordon Schweitzer, Dick Terry, Lois McConnell, Graley Taylor, and Les Kirkendorfer.

Ten seniors were listed in the coveted list of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities." These were chosen by a joint student-faculty committee for scholastic and extra-curricular achievements.

"Varsity Varieties," senior-sponsored production, was presented by the class as a benefit show for the proposed Student Union Building Fund.

THE CLASS OF 1951

Dick Cole, president; Bob Davis, vice-president
Marilyn Canfield, secretary; Don Hayes, treasurer.

Junior activities started off with the junior-senior mixer held at the Wagon Wheel on October 31.

Homecoming week end found drama enthusiasts of the class sharing supporting roles in the three-act comedy, "January Thaw." Among these were "Dutch" Elias, Marilyn Canfield, Ruth Toevs, Carmen Poole, Marge Garcia, and John Klebe.

A toy drive was begun in December; dolls were collected and renovated; food was purchased; distribution was to needy families in the Spokane area.

Janie Williams was chosen as "Dream Queen" in a contest sponsored by the Whitworthian. Her identity was revealed at the alumni colonial party held on the campus St. Valentine's Day.

In traditional manner the juniors sponsored a party for seniors shortly before graduation.

MAY DAY

Sponsored by the AWS the May day festivities were planned for the weekend of May 12 and 13. Beverly Anderson, social chairman, was in charge of arrangements. The Mother's tea was planned for Saturday at which time a style show was presented by a Spokane store.

Freshman girls formed the processional arch through which Queen Madelyn I accompanied by honor attendant Joan Leavers and four princesses, Corrine Weber, Amber Oaks, Bunny Gwinn, and Bev Anderson walked. Five honorary princesses from county high schools also were present. Upperclass women wound the maypole; Margery Unruh and George Stout sang as the engaged couples stepped through the Lilac Ring. A musical program including the play, "Hansel and Gretel," concluded the royal activities.

ROYAL CROWNING—ASWC prexy, Jim Hardie, places the royal crown upon Queen Madelyn I in presence of Joan Leavers, honor attendant.

JANUARY THAW

"JANUARY THAW," a dramatic stage play based on the book by the same name, was given by the undergraduates Friday evening during homecoming week end. A repeat performance was presented on Tuesday, November 8. The play concerns the predicaments of a sophisticated New York family when they try to live in the same Connecticut farmhouse with an old "codger" and his wife.

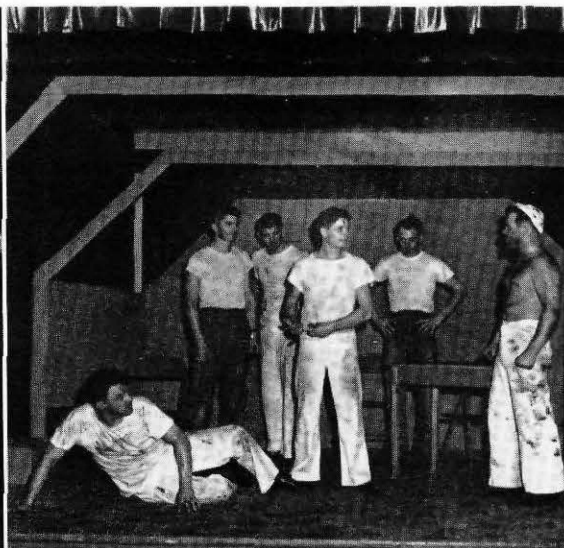

"Dutch" Elias cast as the tobacco-spitting neighbor, Uncle Walter, shared top laughs with Bob Walton who portrayed the old farmer confused by the modern "inconveniences." All roles were doubly cast. The three-act comedy by Bellamy Partridge was directed by Professor Loyd B. Waltz.

DRAMATIC PLAYS

Many student-written and student-directed plays were offered throughout the school year for drama enthusiasts. "Submerged," a one-acter by Shaw and Cotton, displayed realistic tragedy when portrayed by an all-male cast composed of Vern Tucker, "Dutch" Elias, Keith Morgan, Clary Wright, Dick Terry, and Nick Faber. Graley Taylor directed the story which takes place in a submerged submarine with the six mates knowing that they are faced with certain death. Other one-act plays included "Thompson's Luck," "First Date," and "This Night Shall Pass."

The Easter message was also given in a dramatic presentation.

"But Not Goodbye," a three-act comedy, was chosen by Director V. John Bachman as the spring play. The leading role of Sam Griggs, who dies in the first act, but whose spirit comes back to prove that faith works miracles and that virtue is rewarded, is ably portrayed by Mel Unruh. Other members of the cast include George Wortley, Barbara Stutsman, June Wylie, Bob Walton, Jim Quigley, Holland St. John, Keith Morgan, and "Dutch" Elias.

Starting out like a whirlwind, the 1949 version of the Pirates swept to four straight wins before they tasted defeat at the hands of the Eastern Washington Savages. Despite only an average season, the Bucs continued to roll up firsts in competition. They led the league in total offense and were highest in small colleges of the nation in their passing offense department. Ed Kretz and Sam Adams teamed together to also rank in the top four of the nation in pass tossing and receiving, respectively.

Something new was added to Whitworth football when the St. Martins game was set aside as "Vern Tucker day." Tucker, having seen four years of action on the Whit squad, was presented with gifts from admiring fans and his teammates. Tucker complied with the honor-bestowing crowd and ran wild against the unfortunate Saints.

A new coach was also added to the lineup as Sam Tague took over the junior varsity job as well as helped out with the varsity. His J.V.'s had a .500 season, splitting with the Eastern Washington Papposes in two games.

Basketball

Despite a poor statistical showing of 10 wins in 31 ball games, the 1949-1950 Pirates fielded a team which was one of the best in recent years. Up against the stiffest competition in the young Evergreen League, the Pirates lost four of their contests by only four points or less. A bucket's difference could have changed the whole picture in several of the games. Six of the losses came at the hands of such formidable opponents as Washington State College, the high-scoring University of Montana, and Montana State College.

Four seniors saw their last regular action for the Whits and all of them had a good year. Bill Roffler, Clyde Matters, and Gordon Brandt placed in that order for scoring honors with the fourth senior, Al Good, just two men more down the line. Roffler tossed in 108 field goals and 123 free-shots for a high total of 339 points. Roffler also scored the most points in any one game for the season with 26 tallies against the University of Montana.

"Jerry at bat"

Showing plenty of hustle, the latest version of the Pirate horsehiders showed good prospects of making Coach Jerry Stannard's last season at Whitworth a good one. The Buccaneers showed a little more strength at the plate this year and because of that were considered more dangerous by their opponents. The pitching staff also was shaping up with added promise from the underclassmen hurlers. Well balanced, The Pirates had two left-handed chuckers, veteran Don Gum and Bob "Poncho" Page, as well as a pair of effective right handers, Carlyle Dean and "Tow" Pierson. With at least two freshmen in the infield and possibly another pair in the outer gardens, whoever takes over next year should be "sitting pretty" for material.

The playing squad wasn't the only thing to show improvement; the diamond sprouted forth in a glory of green grass, both in the infield and the outfield, the playing surface leveled out, new subsurface dugouts were added. With these improvements, Whitworth's Carman Field rates as one of the best in the conference.

TENNIS

Not faring so well in early season play, the Whitworth tennis squad showed promise of developing into an all-around team with a good chance to take its share of honors. Out for a repeat of their championship performance of 1949, the squad has a job on its hands in the meets scheduled. Leading the squad for the last time, Les Patten was well on his way toward his 40th consecutive collegiate tennis victory without a setback in four years playing for the Pirates. The Whits had an added incentive to win for their coach, Clyde Matters, who is also finishing his fourth year at Whitworth.

GOLF

Beating most of the Pirate spring athletic teams out by a week or more the Whitworth golf team was on the links readying for their spring schedule as soon as the snow was off the center of the fairways. With the season underway, the Buccaneer swingers were getting a few tough breaks, losing some close ones, among them a $10\frac{1}{2}$ - $9\frac{1}{2}$ loss to EWCE. Led by veteran Ben Fairchild, however, things showed evidence of picking up with Dave Bishop, Bob Check, Kenny Turnquist, and Walt Lindgren rounding out the team. Bishop added considerable hope by dropping in an ace on one of the early season matches; a feat his opponent was unable to match, as the hole went to Dave.

The Women's Athletic Association was formed to develop a sports program of activities and to encourage development of individual skills, teamwork, fair play, and sportsmanship. The club also sponsors an intramural program of team sports—volleyball during the fall, basketball in the winter, and softball in the spring. Varsity teams in badminton, archery, basketball, and tennis are backed by this organization.

Under the point system the college women may earn a sweater and a letter in two years by participation in sponsored or hobby sports such as hiking, skiing, basketball, volleyball, softball, archery, tennis, and badminton. Big event for the members is the spring initiation at a near-by lake. Alyce Cheska, women's physical education department head, is the adviser.

WAA INITIATION—Traditionally a spring event of the WAA, initiation was again held at Camp Cowles on Diamond Lake the weekend of May 5 and 6. President Nony Kimball was in charge. She was assisted by an initiation committee composed of Jo Summerson, Lois Spearin, Carol Gray, Muriel Stover, and Bella May. Others were Hope Ainley, transportation; Donna Spalding and Betty Burdin, food; Patty Dole and Norma Bantillo; KP; and Eleanor Culver, recreation. Typical happenings are pictured. Top row: Old members pause after a weary session; Nony presents prexy gavel to incoming Sue Voorheis; bevy of bathing beauties. Middle row: Tying one on—Nony and Jo; cleaning up—Caroline, Donalee, and Wanda; Irene "Newt" directs treetop chorus. Bottom row: Gwen helping Peg along; having a hot one are Marilyn, Sneed, and Annie; ballfootin' fun; Elsie and Carol lighting tapers of loyalty and friendship.

Earning a letter or a sweater is an all-year-round activity for girls interested in the WAA point plan. 500 points entitles them to a letter; and additional 500 to a sweater; an additional 300 to a WAA pin guard. These points are earned by participation in the supervised or hobby sports. Some are pictured on these two pages.

INTRAMURAL

Sponsored by WAA, the intramural program has become a traditional activity of the women's living groups including also the wives' organization. Champions of the sports—volleyball, fall; basketball, winter; and softball, spring—are determined by a round robin tournament. A trophy is presented to the team winner of each sport. By winning consecutively for three years, the trophy becomes a permanent possession of the group. Also sponsored is a tennis tournament in which the girls compete individually in both singles and doubles. The winners are determined by single elimination. Dr. Warren awards a cup to the singles champion at commencement exercises. Winners and runnersup in both doubles and singles receive a special medallion from the WAA. Eleanor Culver, WAA sports manager, is in charge of all contests.

VARSITY—First row: F. McKee, E. Culver, A. Oakes, P. Gazette, B. May, and L. Spearin. Second row: M. McInturff, coach; J. Peterson, L. Hastings, M. Olson, D. Spalding, C. Gray, N. Kimball, and P. Newton.

Eight veterans greeted Mrs. Mae McInturff, varsity coach, on the first day of practice. The weak part of the team, it seemed, was the guards who, with only one letterman, lacked experience; however, as the season progressed, they were soon holding the opposition. The first four were Donna Spalding, Joan Peterson, Bella May, and Mae Louise Olson. Forwards too were well balanced with potential material. Pegg Gazette, playing her first year for Whitworth, turned in a top-notch performance in winning the scoring crown by dropping in 192 points for the season. Eleanor Culver, Floy McKee, and Carol Gray, all veterans, rounded out the first string. The subs—battering rams of the first string—included Lois Spearin, Lois Hastings, Phyllis McConnell, and Nony Kimball. Amber Oaks playing a fourth year was sidelined early in the year with a knee injury. The team wound up the season by taking fourth place in a Tri-State tournament at Richland, Washington. Pegg was also named to the all-star team.

TENNIS

Under the leadership of Mrs. Alyce Cheska, the women's varsity tennis team was organized in 1949. The girls have shown enthusiasm and interest in the program. Many also participated in the second annual women's singles and doubles tournament sponsored by the WAA. Turning out for practice five times each week, the girls perfected their strokes and learned the strategy of the game.

ARCHERY

The women's varsity archery team, coached by Jerrie Kerrick, has become quite active during the spring quarter. The team, last year, tied for first place at a meet on the University of Idaho campus. With three of last year's squad back, the group plans to compete with other colleges.

*Associated Students
Whitworth College*

The Associated Students of Whitworth college carried on a wide variety of activities during the college year. Perhaps the greatest, surely the biggest, was the campaigning for the proposed Student Union, which is to be named Hardwick Hall in memory of the late Dr. Francis T. Hardwick, who was a prominent member of the faculty from 1929 until his death in 1948. "Varsity Varieties," traditionally a senior money-making event, was sponsored by the seniors as a benefit production. Students canvassed the city on April 4 to boost the attendance to the show. Seven hundred dollars was raised by this initial ticket sale.

Other important affairs sponsored by the ASWC during the year were the first homecoming parade through downtown Spokane, the annual Snow frolic on Mount Spokane, Campus Day, May Day, as well as the intercollegiate sports program including football, basketball, and baseball.

In the fall of 1949 the rally committee was organized as a special part of the ASWC. Gordon Petrequin, chairman, and his student group spurred the school enthusiasm to a new height. Decals and rooster caps were sold to finance expenses. A marching unit—the Pep Cadets—led by Randy Hucks and Pauli Blackwell was introduced at homecoming.

One of the last year's council suggestions—the recommendation for a student court to handle disciplinary problems that concern the entire student body—materialized with the election of the court officials and active operation of the court session. The big issues concerned the speeding and reckless driving on the campus.

As usual the main problems confronting the student council, composed this year of the executive officers, one representative from each campus dormitory and an equal number of representatives from the off-campus organization, Alpha Kappa Chi, concerned the budget and the means of apportioning funds for the various school functions and organizations. The possibility of decreasing the number of campus organizations was the point at issue.

Norm McDonald, elected by the council as fifth executive, handled all school elections and served with the other executives on the publication council. Colleen Pickert was appointed temporary secretary when Bev McMorran was unable to return to school following a holiday accident.

The Associated Women Students were led this year by Ruth Toevs, president and Viola Goodale, vice-president. Activities entered into throughout the period included: Big-Little Sister week (at which time any sophomore or upper-class woman serves as "big sister" to an incoming freshman woman); May Day; and Mother's Day Week end. At a winter tea and fashion show, the latest in ski togs was modeled. The event was in honor of new women students. Other officers are: Patty Dole, secretary; Margaret Franke, treasurer; Norma Bantillo, leadership chairman; Beth Wilder, social service chairman; Carmen Poole, publicity chairman. Adviser is Mrs. Anna J. Carrel.

Sefelo began the year's activities with Open Dorm. At Christmas, members participated in the traditional candle-lighting ceremony. Heart Sister Week was entered into wholeheartedly by all women and concluded with a party on St. Valentine's eve. Two projects sponsored by Sefelo were the drive for the March of Dimes and a call board for town students to receive correspondence. Officers are: Madelyn Curtis, president; Pat Young, vice-president; Dixie Harder, secretary; Bonna Krug, treasurer; Gerry Knobel, publicity.

SEFELO COUNCIL—P. Young, Miss Jenkins, adviser, B. Krug, M. Curtis, G. Knobel, C. Gray, D. Harter, P. Waddell, Norma Bantillo.

AWS COUNCIL—R. Toevs, Mrs. Carrel, adviser, V. Goodale, M. Franke, P. Dole, B. Wilder, B. Anderson and C. Poole.

ALPHA KAPPA CHI SPRING EXECUTIVES—First row: S. Jonas, vice-president; L. Olsen, president; and C. Poole, secretary. Second row: G. Moe, treasurer; C. Schierman, fifth executive; and Dr. G. H. Schlauch, adviser.

ALPHI CHI—"Pete" Bennett, Don Taylor, and Mark Jennings.

Alpha Kappa Chi, town students' organization, strives to unite and provide activities for off-campus students. Activities sponsored by AKX are a waffle supper during Spiritual Emphasis week, a roller skating party, and an annual hike to "Big Rock."

Top honors were awarded to the club for the prize-winning float in the homecoming parade.

Officers for fall and winter were Wally Bekowies, president; Bob Ryland, vice-president; Carmen Poole, secretary; Homer Cardle, treasurer, and Clarence Schierman, fifth executive. New spring quarter officers are Lois Olson, president; Shirley Jonas, vice-president; and Gene Moe, treasurer. Dr. Gus Schlauch served as adviser.

Alpha Chi, composed of members of men's living groups, is a service organization seeking to coordinate men's activities and to plan and direct for unification of the dormitory men students. This society is a means through which individuals may express their opinions on matters concerning the men on campus. Officers are Don Taylor, president; Pete Bennett, secretary; Mark Jennings, treasurer, and Dr. Theron B. Maxson, adviser.

Pirettes, women's organization, is an honorary group selected for scholastic achievement and extracurricular activities by the Student Council. The club limits membership to twenty-five. Activities for the year are highlighted by the annual "Pirette Breakfast."

Officers are Margery Unruh, president; Donna Spalding, vice-president; Colleen Pock, secretary; Viola Goodale, treasurer. Miss Marion Jenkins is adviser.

I. K.'s

The Whitworth chapter of I. K.'s were hosts during winter quarter to 30 inter-collegiate Knights from six Inland Empire colleges. The all-day session was conducted by Ben Fairchild, regional viceroy, who was chairman of the conference for the Lookout chapter which was host to the other schools. Wally Walker of Washington State college, national president of I. K., was also present.

Plans for the western state's national conference to be held at Montana State college in Bozeman this last April, were discussed. An exchange of interschool ideas for I. K. activities filled the major portion of the agenda. Colleges represented were North Idaho College of Education, Washington State college, Gonzaga university, Eastern Washington College of Education, University of Idaho and Whitworth.

Members of this organization are selected for their scholastic standing and willingness to serve. The officers are Harvey Polley, Duke; Don Hayes, Scribe; Joe Thome, Chancellor; Clyde Pock, Chaplain; Dick Cole, Recorder; Ben Fairchild, Expansion Worker.

WHITWORTHIAN

Once a week, the campus is literally flooded with copies of the Whitworthian, direct from the Evergreen Press in downtown Spokane. Each Thursday night, members invade the premises of the print shop. After hours of editing, proof-reading, "blood, sweat, and tears," the campus organ is ready to go to press.

Roger Walker held the editorship during fall and winter quarters. Managing Editor position was filled by Joan Beckwith, while Jim Weed dealt out assignments as News Editor. Society Editor, Flossie Jones, was always first in completing page make-up, while Wes Regan concluded with the sports page. Two scoops of the year were the Natsihi robbery and revealing the Queen of Homecoming.

VOL. 40 SPOKANE, WASHINGTON, OCTOBER 7, 1949 No. 3

NATSIHI OFFICE ROBBED!

Women's Conference Theme Is "That I May Know Him"

The 1949 annual conference of the National Student Nurses' Association will be held at Purvise park, a picnic at Deer Lake, starting tonight and continuing through Monday.

"That I May Know Him" is the theme of the conference. After making of the program, the participants to speak will be Mrs. Marie Jones, Pullman, and Mrs. Arnie, Oakeside, Pasco.

Mrs. Jones and her husband who is a professor at WSU are sponsors of John Varney as the feature speaker. Mrs. Jones is a graduate of the University of California. Mrs. Oakeside has come quite recently to this country from Norway and has been very successful in her business.

Missing Cash Box Held About $200

Approximately $200 was stolen from the NATSIHI office between 8 p. m. Wednesday and 8 a. m. Thursday. It was recovered by Co-sergeant Stubbins, officer of the annual. A gray, steel cash box containing the money was kept in an unlocked drawer in the business manager's desk.

The police issued notices to the students to check a place if the doors and windows are locked. The box is now in the possession of the police.

The investigation is continuing. The police are looking for the thief.

Infirmary Enlarged

The infirmary has had its face lifted and there has been some changes made to give today in a large portion of the building formerly used for other classes.

The new building is 12 feet wide and 12 feet deep. It will give three very pleasant rooms. The new infirmary is much larger and more convenient than the old one. The building is now equipped for the future.

Now Or Never

The school is now in a critical position. The students must decide now or never whether they will support the school's interests.

FTA And Hearings

The Federal Trade Commission is holding hearings on the proposed changes in the Federal Trade Commission Act. The hearings will be held in Spokane on October 10 and 11.

Statistics Reveal 761 Registered

The statistics for the year 1948 show that 761 students are registered for the coming year. This is an increase of 15% over the previous year.

Nurses Get Word From Dr. Maxson

Dr. Thomas Maxson, president of the Washington State Nurses' Association, visited the school on October 2 to deliver the message for the homecoming week. He was welcomed by the school and held a meeting with the nursing students.

Natsihi Staff

Off to a bad financial start because of partial payment of last year's book and the unsolved office robbery, the 1950 business staff had to work extra hard to raise the proposed $6,000 budget. Subscription tickets were sold for the first time in years; previously the book had always been distributed to all members of the ASWC. Dean Gammell served as business manager for the fall quarter. Upon his resignation, Dorothy Hardesty, who had been working on the Natsihi advertising staff, was selected by the publication council to finish his year of office. Rudy Cozzetto also solicited advertising for the yearbook.

The editorial staff had its usual publication problems and pitfalls. Changing from a 160-page 8½ by 10½ book to a 144-page 9 by 12 meant a complete revision of make-up. Sharing the "top" headaches with Editor Jo (Summerson) was Carl Drake, copy editor, who became Spring editor of the Whitworthian. Section editors were

Other staff members include Marie Buskirk, Liu Lindgren, Wanda Strickland, Darrell Smith, and Joan Argenbright. Ginger Newhouse and Joan Beckwith capably assisted the photographers, Clary Wright and Bob Chamness, with the scheduling and finishing of pictures.

The book was printed by the Hill Printing Co. of Spokane; engraving work was done by the Spokane American Engraving; and Burchett Studio again did all the individual photography.

WRITERS' CLUB—Jim Weed, Peggy O'Connor, Joan Wycoff, Joan Beckwith, Flossie Jones.

WRITERS' CLUB

The objective of the Writers' club is to encourage creative writing among the students on the college campus. Monthly meetings held in the homes of the town members or in the journalism classroom offer opportunities for individual criticism and evaluation. Officers of the club are Jim Weed, president; Joan Beckwith, vice-president; Sally Evans, secretary; and Joan Wycoff, treasurer. Prof. A. O. Gray, journalism dept. head, and Mrs. John Robbins, English instructor, serve as advisers to this small informal group.

PRESS CLUB

To promote journalism at Whitworth and to foster professional growth is the aim of the newly organized Press club. Active membership is limited to journalism majors and minors with a "B" average in journalism and a 2.5 academic average. Graduating seniors and juniors form the nucleus of this organization. Activities include special contests for high school newspapers and the establishment of an editorial board to coordinate the Whitworthian and Natsihi. Officers are Georgene Summerson, chairman, and Peggy O'Connor, secretary-treasurer. A. O. Gray is adviser.

PRESS CLUB—First row: B. Sauve, G. Summerson, P. O'Connor, J. Beckwith. Second row: C. Drake, D. Gammell, D. Barlow, D. Hardesty, A. O. Gray.

CHOIR—First row: B. Krug, D. Swanson, A. Clarke, P. Gish, K. Root, S. Gilson, D. Gray, D. Packer, L. Lee, M. Toevs, A. Harold, C. Douglas, B. Follett. Second row: G. Aeschliman, M. Franke, M. Carlsen, P. Waddell, B. Scribner, C. Pickert, V. Raines, M. Unruh, V. Goodale, H. Hendrickson, B. Rinker, N. Bantillo, A. Moberly, M. Fritsch, P. Love. Third row: G. Till, J. Carlsen, D. Howell, R. Classen, D. Klein, D. Snell, W. Bekowies, J. McConnell, G. Stout, C. Moxley, S. Elder, F. Holmes, D. Hayes, L. McConnell, J. Kerrick. Fourth row: A. Hill, M. Jennings, B. Campbell, L. Henderson, M. Unruh, W. Moore, W. Thomas, B. McConnell, J. Dowdy, W. Richards, C. Ainley, B. Bruce, B. Peck, L. Daniels. Prof. Wilbur Anders, directing.

Under the dynamic leadership of Professor Wilbur L. Anders, the a cappella choir again became the dominant vocal organization on the Whitworth campus. The choir, consisting of 60 voices, sang in California, Oregon, and Washington on their annual spring tour. Their religious anthems were heard in Sacramento, Pasadena, Los Angeles, Hollywood, Palm Springs, Oakland, San Francisco, Portland, Vancouver and also at Westmont college and San Anselmo Seminary. National recognition was achieved when the choir was heard on a Mutual Don Lee hook-up in April. The choir also gave memorable campus performances at the first annual "Christmas at Whitworth" and during Commencement week end. Jim Carlsen is president of the group; Jim Dowdy serves as vice-president; Norma Bantillo and Ruth Toevs as secretaries; and Helmuth Bekowies as business manager.

Hartford. Trumpet: L. Kirby. Trombone: F. Holmes, and D. Parton. Pianist: D. Gray.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra is quickly beginning to take its deserved place as a functioning part of the college music department. The group, with the band, was heard in a joint spring concert under the baton of Professor John V. Robbins. Their works at this affair included "Roumanian Fantasy," "The Caliph of Bagdad," the Andante of the "First Symphony," which was arranged for the string section by student Patty Love, and the "March of the Tin Soldiers." They also accompanied the combined choir and chorus at the Christmas festival and were included in the Commencement festivities.

VARSITY QUARTET—M. Fritsch, pianist; J. McConnell, M. Unruh, V. Goodale, and G. Stout.

BAND

Also under the directorship of Prof. John V. Robbins, the band made new advances during the academic year. Their efforts gave promise of a well organized marching unit to represent Whitworth next fall when the Red and Black will march. Proceeds from the spring concert were used for the purchase of uniforms for the band members, the drum major, and the majorettes.

Christian Activities

Under the guidance of the Christian Activities Council, the religious functions were maintained at "full swing" throughout the year. Christian Endeavor, largest C. E. group in the Northwest, was under the leadership of Dave Beamer, sophomore of Duluth, Minn.

Philadelphians and Life Service, men and women's full-time-service clubs, were sponsors of special Bible study meetings, morning prayer meetings, and were originators of "Spiritual Advance Week," held during winter quarter with Dr. Edwin J. Orr of Ireland as guest speaker.

Missions Fellowship, composed of students interested in world missions, met every Sunday. A program consisted of various missionaries from the field who gave talks and information.

Gospel teams represented Whitworth throughout the Inland Empire. Prayer Bands and Dorm Prayer meetings were continuously active.

GOSPEL TEAM GROUPS—First row: D. Hayes, W. Russell, R. Aeschliman, G. Knobel, P. O'Connor, E. Pang, M. vanPraag, M. Winfrey, C. Baker, D. Griffin, D. Klinessmith, B. Creevy, and D. Taylor. COMMITTEE—First row: B. Rinker, secretary; J. Wylie, music; S. Evans, decorations. Second row: B. Follett, housing; W. Gouldin, chairman; A. Oakes, financial secretary; and Miss Jenkins, adviser. Third row: C. Gray, program; J. Hatrick, transportation; Mrs. C. B. Jones, Mrs. Armin Gesswein, speakers. Fourth row: H. Ainley, publicity; N. Bantillo, recreational; and S. Bosworth, registration.

Adhering to tradition, the women began the opening days of school by participating in Women's Conference.

Leaving texts, classes and campus, the destination was Deer Lake. Under direction of Mrs. Wendy Gouldin, they gathered in the out-of-doors to listen to speakers, Mrs. C. B. Jones and Mrs. Armin Gesswein. The theme, "That I May Know Him," gave to many a better understanding and perspective as to their life in relation to the will of God.

Lyrics of the theme song were composed by Betty Green and the music was by Phyllis Gish.

The theme verse was from Philippians 3:10: "That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being made comfortable unto His death."

"THAT I MAY KNOW HIM"

Starting the school year off with a challenge for the students of Whitworth was the annual Spiritual Emphasis Week held November 13 to 18. Dr. L. David Cowie, personal friend of many students, was the guest speaker.

Dr. Cowie is the pastor of the University Presbyterian Church, Seattle, Washington. He is noted for his active part in youth conferences, especially on the West Coast, and has been influential in the lives of many high school and college-age young people. He was the special speaker at the 1948 men's conference.

The theme for the week was Acts 1:8 . . . "Ye shall receive power." Meetings were held every morning during the regular chapel period in the gym and every evening in the college church. An added attraction were the group conferences each evening after the regular service with the living groups on the campus. Morning and afternoons were devoted to private interviews.

Spiritual Emphasis Week is jointly sponsored by the Administration and the ASWC. Conference pianist was Marion Fritsch.

Men's Conference

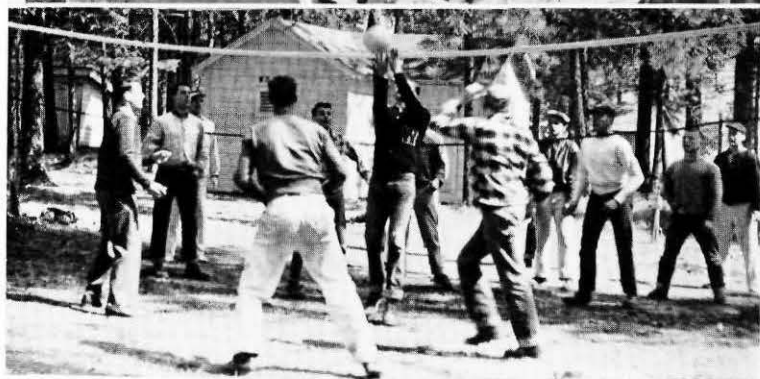

About 200 men took part in the annual men's conference sponsored by the W club at Deer lake. Main speaker for the religious retreat was Dr. Robert Munger, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Berkeley, Calif.; others were Professors L. E. Yates, and Fenton Duvall. Earl Plankenhorn served as coordinator; he was assisted by Don Taylor, Bobby Davis, Kenny Gamble, Phil McDonald, Bill Van Camp, Randy Hucks, Willis Newton, Bob Rettke, and Prof Benjamin Neustrel, adviser.
