Well I left my happy home
To see what I could find out,
I left my folk and friends
With the aim to clear my mind out.

Well I hit
The Rowdy Road, and many kinds I met there, many stories told me of the way to get there.

Well In the End I'll Know,
But on the way I Wonder, Through Descending Snow,
and Through the Frost
and Thunder

I listen to the Wind Come howl, telling me I have to hurry;
I listen to the Robin's Song, saying Not to Worry.

Then I found myself alone,
hoping someone would miss me,
Thinking about my home,
and the last girl to kiss me.

Then I found my head one day,
When I wasn't even trying.
and here I am to say,
Cause there is no use in lying.

Yes, the answer lies Within, so why not take a look now?
Kick out the Devil's sin,
pick up a good Book now.

So On and On I Go,
The Seconds Tick the Time Out,
There's so much left to know,
and I'm "On the Road to find Out"

-Cat Stevens

ADVICE TO TRAVELERS

A burro once, sent by express,
His shipping ticket on his bridle,
Ate up his name and his address,
And in some warehouse, standing idle,
He waited till he liked to die.
The moral hardly needs the showing;
Don't keep things locked up deep inside—
Say who you are and where you're going.

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood, and sorry I could not travel both and be one traveler, long I stood and looked down one as far as I could to where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then I took the other as just as fair,
and having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear,
Though as for the passing there had worn them really about the same.

and both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence,
Two roads diverged in the wood, and I—I took the one less traveled by,
and that has made all the difference.

“The Road Not Taken”

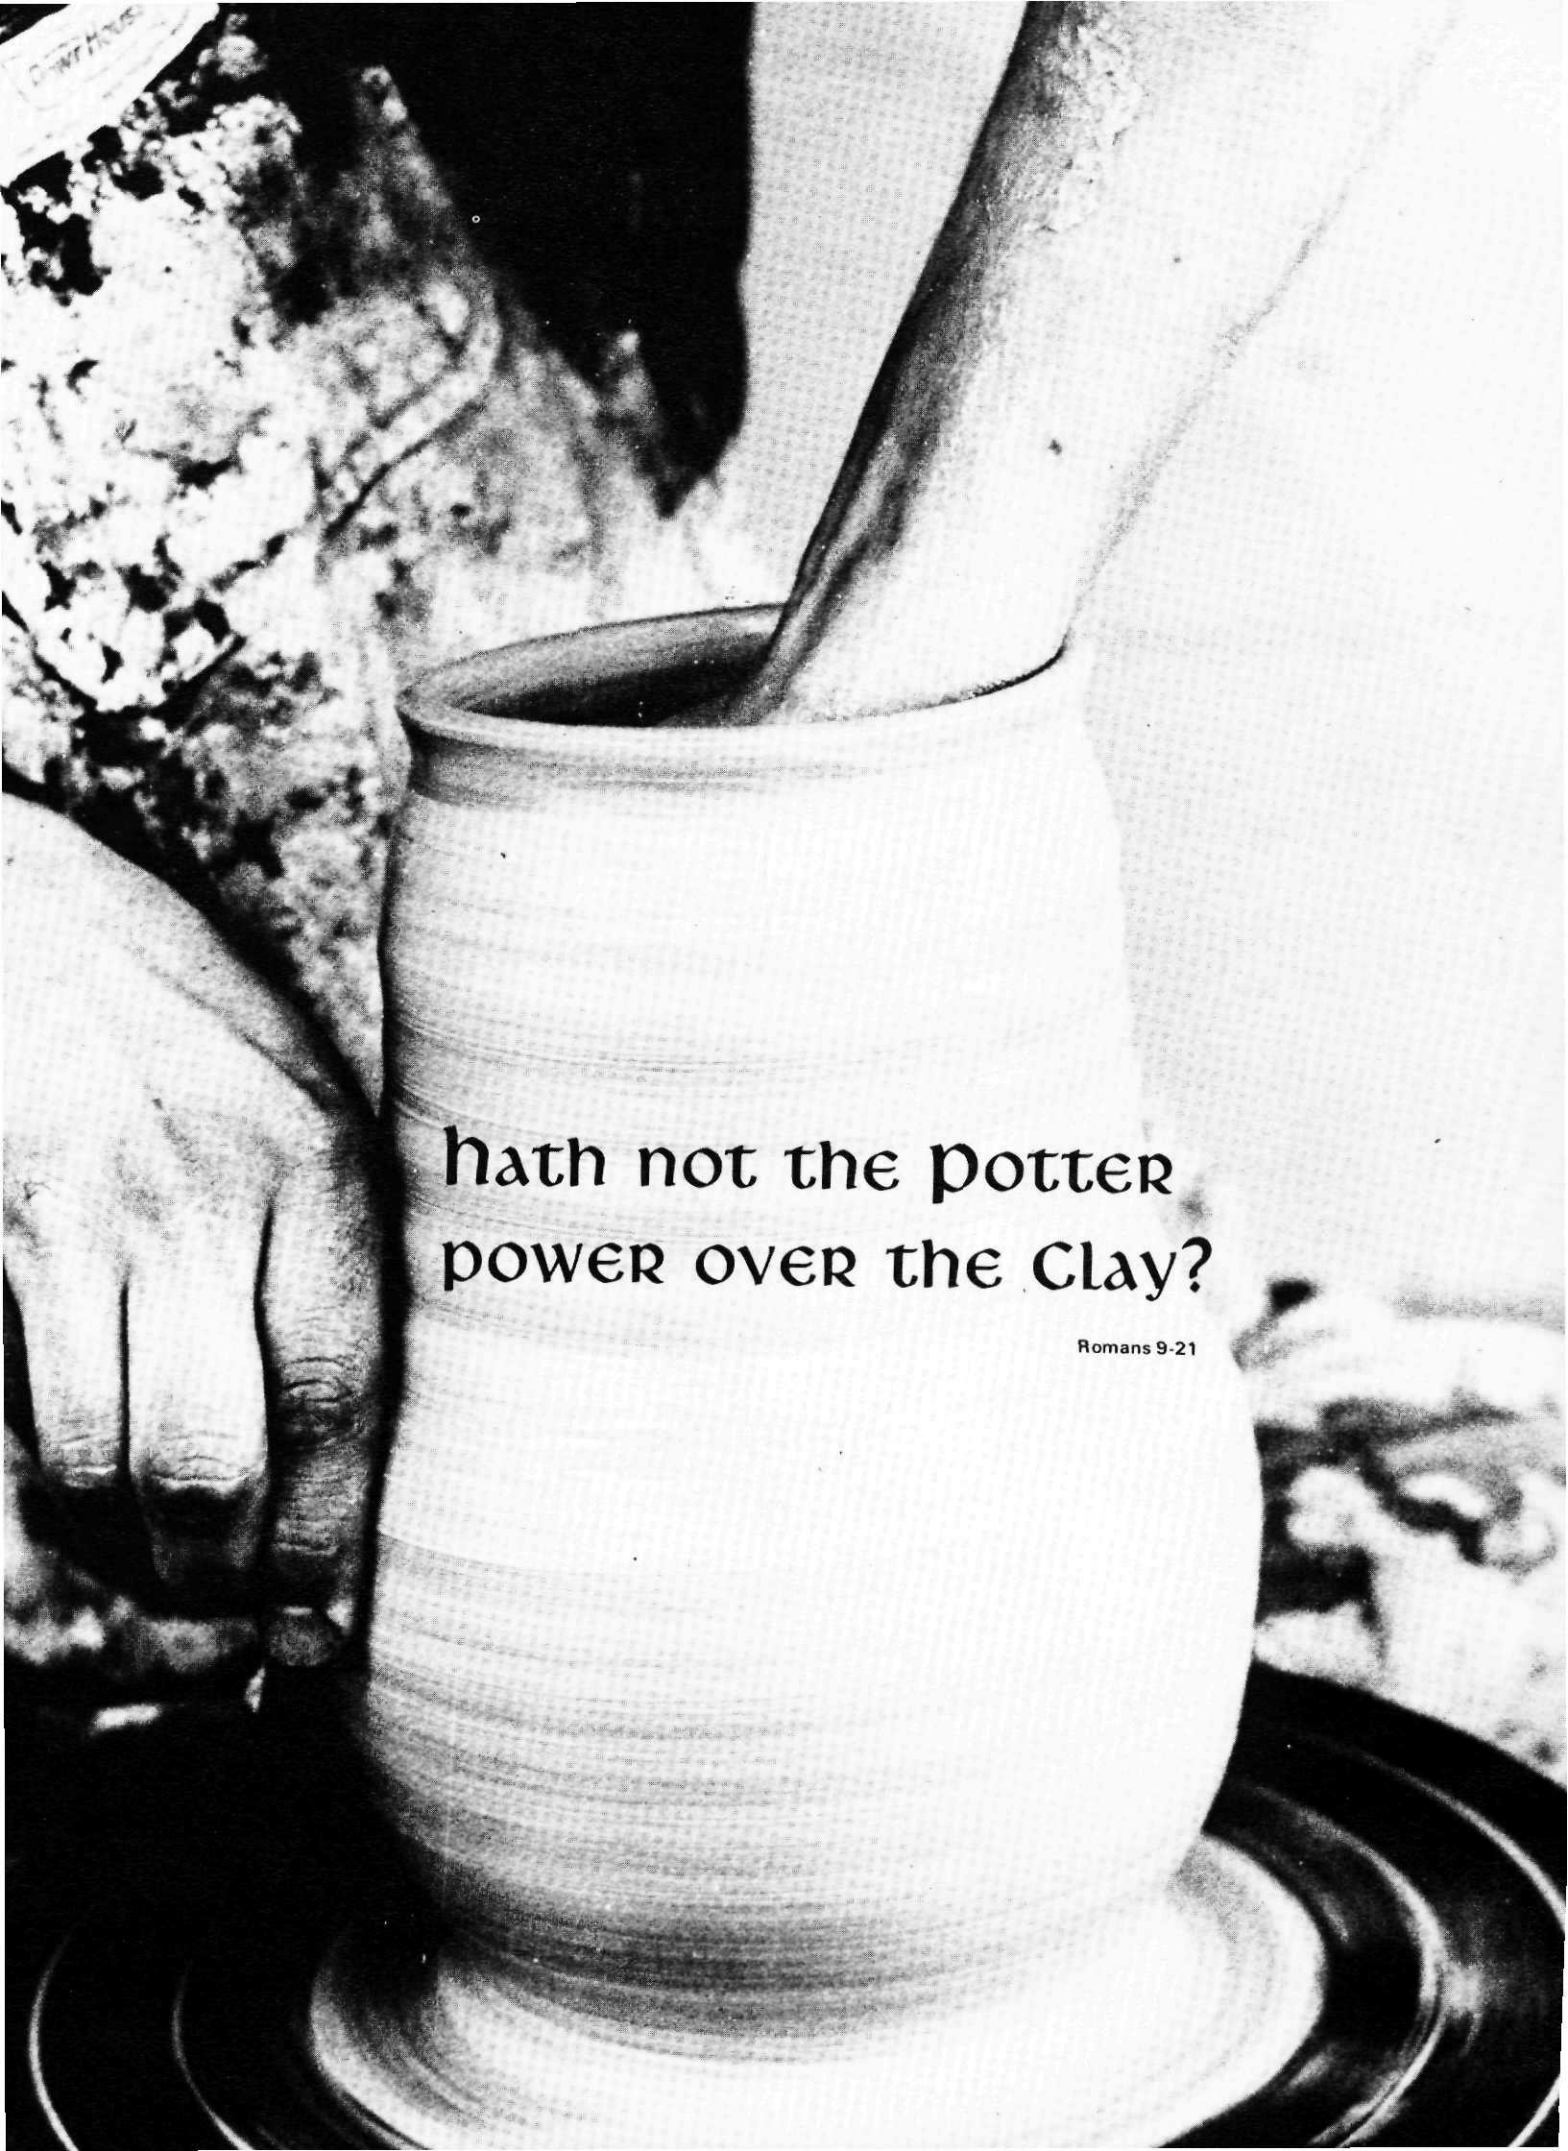

By ROBERT FROST

TOMORROW WE BOTH HAVE MUCH TO DO. YOU'LL SET OUT ALONG THE ROAD AGAIN, TO SEEK YOUR SALVATION: I'LL SET OUT ALONG ANOTHER ROAD, MY OWN, AND I TOO WILL BE SEEKING SALVATION. EACH HIS OWN ROAD, AND WE SHALL NEVER MEET AGAIN.

Nikos Kazantzakis
