Two Belgian Priests Back From Red Jail

HONGKONG, May 26 (AP)—Two Belgian priests, emaciated and weakened after a 14-month ordeal in a Chinese Communist prison, collapsed in a mission house yesterday on their arrival by train from Shanghai.

The Rev. Alain de Terwangne, 40, of Antwerp, and the Rev. Clement Henirkens, 38, of Liege, were described by missionary friends as "nothing but bags of bones compared to when we last saw them."

They were imprisoned together since March 25, 1953, being accused by Communists of sending out news items which were "not strictly religious."

The Communists questioned them day and night, asking them to denounce their friends which they refused to do so. They also refused to confess any "crime" while they were in gaol.

They had been imprisoned in the Lokawei, the Nantao and the Ward Road gaols in Shanghai.

On May, 25, 1954, the Communists sentenced Fr. Terwagne to three years' imprisonment and Fr. Renirkens to two years' imprisonment. But eventually they were expelled from Shanghai.

The two priests were met by Fr. A. Poletti at the border, and Fr. Paul Duchesne at the Tsim-shatsui Railway terminus.

At present the two priests are staying at the Maryknoll Mission House, Stanley, awaiting instructions from their missions in Belgium.
