May 21, 1915.

Mrs. John Bruce Dodd,
Spokane, Washington.

My dear Mrs. Dodd:-

Mr. Gates, owner and Editor of The People's Home Journal, regrets sincerely that our June issue is already in print, so that he cannot make any comments upon "Father's Day" until a recurrence of the anniversary.

He thinks the movement in favor of it a capital one and subscribes heartily to it. The "fathers" are to be congratulated upon your whole hearted championship, and we hope that the Day, founded upon a good old fashioned reverence and regard for the Head of the Family, will commend itself to an ever widening circle.

With best wishes and thanks for the interesting paper - "Father's Day" - duly received, I am

Cordially yours,

Mary Botsford Charlton

Managing Editor.
