"T'kope Chak-chak, How!" Greetings, O White Eagle!

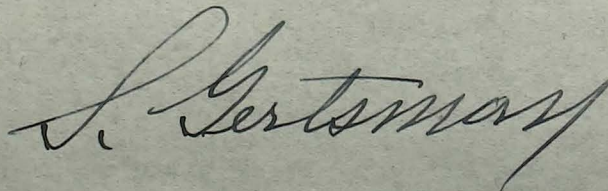

Dear Mrs. Dodd:

Your "Children of the Sun" arrived safely on Thanksgiving Day. Allow me, on behalf of myself and Mrs. Gertsman, to thank you for "Hi-yu pot-latch" great gifts, and for the Thanksgiving spirit in which they are given.

I am very pleased to hear of the forthcoming portrait of Father. It may mean another story in the Oregonian for 1934 Father's Day. I am also glad to learn of your proposed visit to Portland after the holidays. I expect to talk over many things with you anent the F.D. Silver Anniversary, which should be made a never-to-be forgotten event.

Please write me before leaving for Portland, advising me as to where you intend to stay, while in this city so that we can arrange for our conference. With best wishes always, I am

Most Sincerely

Dear Mr. Todd:

Your children of the "Sun" arrived safely on the Pacific and they allow me, on behalf of myself and Mrs. Peterson, to thank you for "Hi-Yo-Jacked" next time, and for the "Sun" giving spirit in which they are given.
I am very pleased to hear of the forthcoming portrait of Father. It may mean another story in the "Sun" for 1954.
Father's Day. I am glad to learn of your proposed visit to Portland after the holidays. I expect to talk over many things with you about the E.D. Silver Anniversary, which should be made a never-to-be-forgotten event.
Please write me before leaving for Portland, advising me as to where you intend to stay, while in this city so that we can arrange for our conference. With best wishes, always, I am

Yours sincerely,
Elihu Spalding
