State of Washington
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
Olympia

CLARENCE D. MARTIN
GOVERNOR

June 13, 1933

Mrs. John Bruce Dodd
International Fathers' Day Association
Spokane, Washington

Dear Mrs. Dodd:

Governor Martin has been out of the office since your telegram came, so I do not know whether he will be available to issue a proclamation on Fathers' Day.

He is reluctant to make proclamations promiscuously, but this seems to be worthy of such a proclamation and I am quite sure he will consider doing so if he returns in time to give it consideration. I shall bring it to his attention immediately upon his return.

Sincerely yours,

Richard Hamilton
Secretary to the Governor
