

6-16-1914

Newspaper Clipping from News-Herald, June 16, 1914

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924>

NOW WE ARE TO HONOR "DAD."

June 21 Is Father's Day Throughout
the Country.

June 21 is to be Father's day. The observation, technically speaking, is very simple and requires but the wearing of a red rose in one's button hole for the living parent and a white flower in memory of the deceased parent. Of course the real observation will extend further than floral self-decoration in the majority of instances and will include much that will add to "dad's" material comfort around home.

Families all over the United States will no doubt endeavor to make things as rosey for Dear Old Dad as possible. The "Don't Smoke in the House" sign will be shoved behind the kitchen door—on this occasion at least; millinery bills, grocery bills and similar annoyances will be tabooed for the day and all bill collectors will be instructed to keep off the front porch during the observance—and Dad will have nothing to do until tomorrow.

The Father's movement, which was started by Mrs. John Bruce Dodd in Spokane, Wash., five years ago, has been taken up throughout the country, and the observance has grown to be of national interest. Germany, Sweelen, Korea, Japan, Mexico, Canada, Hawaii, India and a few other countries have joined in the observance.

... long distance to go on the road of fame. As the play progressed Michael was captured, and the usual dialogue began.

"Your name?" imperiously demanded the officer who had effected the capture.

"Michael Strogoff," impressively answered the hero.

"Your occupation?" continued the questioning party.

"I am an officer in the imperial army," was the prompt rejoinder.

"Your rank?" haughtily pursued the questioner.

"I know it," said Michael, almost sighfully.

Physicians' Notice.

The physicians of the city of Lincoln will not be in their offices Thursday afternoons and evenings during June, July and August, and Sunday afternoons and evenings during the year.

Clipping from

Lincoln, Ill., News-Herald
Tuesday, June 16, 1914.

NOW WE ARE TO HONOR "DAD."

June 21 Is Father's Day Throughout
the Country.

June 21 is to be Father's day. The observation, technically speaking, is very simple and requires but the wearing of a red rose in one's button hole for the living parent and a white flower in memory of the deceased parent. Of course the real observation will extend further than floral self-decoration in the majority of instances and will include much that will add to "dad's" material comfort around

... long distance to ... the native