

7-1-1914

Newspaper Clipping from Sharpsville Advertiser, July 1, 1914

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924>

---

Recommended Citation

"Newspaper Clipping from Sharpsville Advertiser, July 1, 1914" Whitworth University (1914). Newspapers, Pre-1924. Paper 47.
<https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924/47>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Father's Day / Sonora Dodd Collection at Whitworth University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newspapers, Pre-1924 by an authorized administrator of Whitworth University.

Good growing weather at last, and now hear us grumble about the rain and heat.

—Father's Day was observed at the Baptist church Sunday morning. The pastor took for his subject, "Honor Thy Father."

of
cip
of
lai
pe
lav
ge

A prompt, thorough daily clipping service on any subject, anywhere. Special news bulletins and construction reports.

From

ADVERTISER

Published at

Sharpsville

Date

JUL 2 1914

Pa

—Good growing weather at last, and now hear us grumble about the rain and heat.

—Father's Day was observed at the Baptist church Sunday morning. The pastor took for his subject, "Honor Thy Father."

of
of lay per lay
ges

