

6-21-1914

Newspaper Clipping from Spokesman Review, June 21, 1914

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924>

Recommended Citation

"Newspaper Clipping from Spokesman Review, June 21, 1914" Whitworth University (1914). Newspapers, Pre-1924. Paper 61.
<https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924/61>

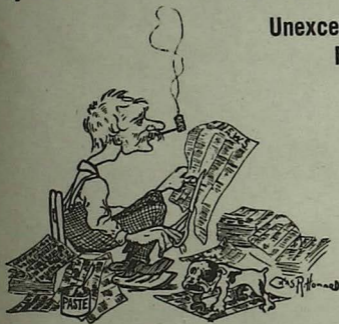

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Father's Day / Sonora Dodd Collection at Whitworth University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newspapers, Pre-1924 by an authorized administrator of Whitworth University.

Mothers' day and fathers' day are days enough for the family. But if any additions to such days are to be made, the generous aunt or uncle, the much-enduring mother-in-law and the suffering stepmother ought to receive recognition.

Dad

Spokane Press Clipping Bureau

Unexcelled Facilities

P. O. Box 47
SPOKANE, WASH.
This clipping is from the Spokesman-Review
Spokane, Washington

DATED.....JUN 21 1914.....

Mothers' day and fathers' day are days enough for the family. But if any additions to such days are to be made, the generous aunt or uncle, the much-enduring mother-in-law and the suffering stepmother ought to receive recognition.

Shipping Bureau

Unrecovered
Families

1918 from the Division of 6-1-18