

6-17-1914

Newspaper Clipping from Chicago Post, June 17, 1914

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924>

Recommended Citation

"Newspaper Clipping from Chicago Post, June 17, 1914" Whitworth University (1914). Newspapers, Pre-1924. Paper 60.
<https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924/60>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Father's Day / Sonora Dodd Collection at Whitworth University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newspapers, Pre-1924 by an authorized administrator of Whitworth University.

finds it wise to stay in an old rut.

BOW WOW, SAYS FATHER.

June 21 has been set apart as father's day. It only goes to substantiate that old adage about every dog.

Clipping from

Chicago. Ill. Post
Wednesday, June 17, 1914.

finds it wise to stay in an old rut.

BOW WOW, SAYS FATHER.

June 21 has been set apart as father's day. It only goes to substantiate that old adage about every dog.

