DOWNTRODDEN DAD

DUCKS DUTIES A DAY

Seattle, July 18—Poor, hard working, much-misunderstood, thoroughly downtrodden and altogether abused "Dad," like the proverbial worm, has turned and today hundreds of alleged heads of families from every northwestern city gathered here to celebrate the throwing off of shackles for at least 24 days of the year.

series of miserable experiences wherein he has occupied an insignificant corner, while "Ma" has been heralded as the cornerstone of the nation and hope of the future, Dad has decided he should have a day. "Dad's day," was held in connection with the annual Tilikum Potlatch celebration, when the Pacific coast for three days each year joins Seattle in merrymaking.

The protest against dishwashing, floor scrubbing, cradle rocking, bread making and all other domestic woes heaped upon husbands by tyrannical housewives, reached a climax when, headed by Governor Lister, and with Mayor Hi Gill and hundreds of other "dads" in chains, wheeling preambulators, feeding lusty infants, and performing other stunts, paraded the streets in all their degradation.

with Austria, lost his throne and his land become a Prussian province.

The newspapers have been producing some delightful anecdotes in connection with the duke's theatrical activities. Ludwig Barnay, who since become one of the leading actors of Germany, played Hamlet with the "Meininger" some forty years ago. At the rehearsals it was the custom of the duke to sit alone in the audience room and make his comments from time to time on the work of the actors. In the scene of Hamlet with the players Barnay spoke in

FOR SWISS COURTS

Berne, July 18—The canton of Grisons voted almost unanimously of Romanche being the language of the courts. Romanche is a survival of the ancient tongue derived from Latin, and is one of the four languages officially recognized in the Swiss parliament the others
