

6-21-1914

Newspaper Clipping from the Ottawa Free Trader, June 21, 1914

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924>

---

Recommended Citation

"Newspaper Clipping from the Ottawa Free Trader, June 21, 1914" Whitworth University (1914). Newspapers, Pre-1924. Paper 78.
<https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924/78>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Father's Day / Sonora Dodd Collection at Whitworth University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newspapers, Pre-1924 by an authorized administrator of Whitworth University.

SUNDAY WILL BE FOR FATHERS'

---

According to Custom Today is Fathers' Day.

Today is Father's day. The occasion is one acknowledged all over the world, even to the nations of the orient. And the custom will not be broken in Ottawa. It is proper to wear a red rose for the living parent and a white one for the deceased.

The movement of Fathers' day was one inaugurated in the Pacific northwest, the originator being Mrs. Bruce Dodd, of Spokane, Washington, and is now being observed throughout the civilized world.

---

... recalls an amusing incident.      nam
... like the notes of the Bank of ...

Clipping from

Ottawa Free Trader
Sunday June 24

SUNDAY WILL BE FOR FATHERS'

According to Custom Today is Fathers' Day.

Today is Father's day. The occasion is one acknowledged all over the world, even to the nations of the orient. And the custom will not be broken in Ottawa. It is proper to wear a red rose for the living parent and a white one for the deceased.

The movement of Fathers' day was one inaugurated in the Pacific northwest, the originator being Mrs. Bruce Dodd, of Spokane, Washington, and is now being observed throughout the civilized world.

... recalls an amusing incident.

nam