Dear Mrs. Dodd:

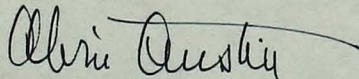

Best wishes to "Apple Week" and heartiest thanks to you for sending Mrs. Austin and me a box of "Delicious" apples.

It is so like you, Mrs. Dodd, to remember friends thus sweetly.

It was equally charming of you to say that you often think of me and of my great kindness to you. When you assure me that each thought is a prayer, I am certainly touched. I shall never forget a little thing you said to me when you were here in May, when you reminded me that you looked upon me as a son. And I, too, look upon you with great tenderness and also as the lovely Mother of Father's Day.

On behalf of my "adorable" daughters, my dear wife and the members of our Committee, I return the choicest greetings which you send me. I know the apples will make a big hit with all of us; yes, I am distributing them among our friends on the Committee, as you would undoubtedly wish.

Most sincerely yours for Father

Alvin Austin
