

6-14-1914

Newspaper Clipping from The Spokesman-Review, June 14, 1914

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924>

Recommended Citation

"Newspaper Clipping from The Spokesman-Review, June 14, 1914" Whitworth University (1914). Newspapers, Pre-1924. Paper 86. <https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924/86>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Father's Day / Sonora Dodd Collection at Whitworth University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newspapers, Pre-1924 by an authorized administrator of Whitworth University.

NEXT SUNDAY IS FATHERS' DAY

Preparations Are Being Made for Observance Here.

Preparations are well under way for the observance of fathers' day next Sunday. This is the day originated several years ago by Mrs. John B. Dodd of Spokane.

The Rev. Conrad Bluhm, pastor of the Centenary Presbyterian church, is in charge of arrangements for a big interdenominational massmeeting to be held in the Spokane Y. M. C. A. at 3 p. m. next Sunday. Arrangements for speakers will be made at the regular monthly meeting of the Spokane Ministerial association in the Y. M. C. A. at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow. George A. Forbes, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will speak.

Mrs. Dodd announces that Governor Ernest Lister has been asked to issue a proclamation calling for a special observance of the day throughout the state. She also announces that Professor George Stout, director of the Spokane Symphony orchestra, will give a special fathers' day program of music in connection with the concerts in Natatorium park June 21. The Theosophical society will also observe the day.

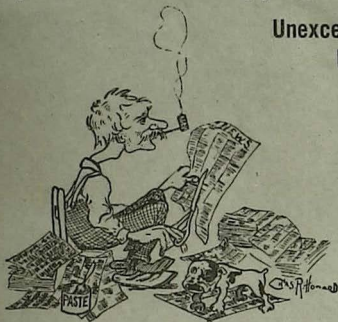

HERPICIDE D

strikes at the very root of hair trou ning scalp and falling hair. The ha boldness which is incur

Dad

Spokane Press Clipping Bureau

Unexcelled Facilities

P. O. Box 47

SPOKANE, WASH.

This clipping is from the

Spokesman-Review

Spokane, Washington

DATED JUN 14 1914

NEXT SUNDAY IS FATHERS' DAY

Preparations Are Being Made for Observance Here.

Preparations are well under way for the observance of fathers' day next Sunday. This is the day originated several years ago by Mrs. John B. Dodd of Spokane.

The Rev. Conrad Bluhm, pastor of the Centenary Presbyterian church, is in charge of arrangements for a big interdenominational massmeeting to be held in the Spokane Y. M. C. A. at 3 p. m. next Sunday. Arrangements for speakers will be made at the reg-

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

LIBRARY

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
LIBRARY

DATE 1911