

5-20-1915

Newspaper Clipping from Spokane Chronicle, May 20, 1915

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924>

---

Recommended Citation

"Newspaper Clipping from Spokane Chronicle, May 20, 1915" Whitworth University (1915). Newspapers, Pre-1924. Paper 94.
<https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924/94>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Father's Day / Sonora Dodd Collection at Whitworth University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newspapers, Pre-1924 by an authorized administrator of Whitworth University.

MRS. FOWLER TO DIRECT THE SALE

---

Will Be in Charge of the
Girls Selling Spokane-
Made Ballad at Liberty.

---

The young women who have been selected to conduct the sale of Mrs. May Arkwright Hutton's "Song of the Soldier Boy" at the Liberty theater tonight are May Walsh, Eunice Henniger, Edith Ryan, Edna Fenney, Helen Fowler and Myrtle Durham. These girls will be in charge of Mrs. Belle Fowler.

Jesse Buchholz will sing the ballad and members of the Ad club and the chamber of commerce will attend.

Last night Mrs. Hutton was presented with a locket by the Women's Democratic club, a rhododendron by the Father's Day association and an American flag by the G. A. R. Attorney V. T. Tustin told how the song was written.

The film offering is "The Heart of Maryland," an elaborate version of the war play, with Mrs. Leslie Carter in the leading role.

...ence.
...ith which county authorities should
...small community to take care of it.
...by the sheriff's office might serve
...nobo fraternity that the fringes of
...ating grounds. If some such work

Dad

CHRONICLE

Spokane, Wn.

MAY 20 1915

MRS. FOWLER TO DIRECT THE SALE

Will Be in Charge of the
Girls Selling Spokane-
Made Ballad at Liberty.

The young women who have been selected to conduct the sale of Mrs. May Arkwright Hutton's "Song of the Soldier Boy" at the Liberty theater tonight are May Walsh, Eunice Henniger, Edith Ryan, Edna Fenney, Helen Fowler and Myrtle Durham. These girls will be in charge of Mrs. Belle Fowler.

Jesse Buchholz will sing the ballad and members of the Ad club and the chamber of commerce will attend.

Last night Mrs. Hutton was presented with a locket by the Women's Democratic club, a rhododendron by

В. П. КОРОТКО

ОБЩЕСТВО

ИЗДАТЕЛЬСТВО