Dear Mrs. Dodd:

It certainly was nice of you to remember me as you always do on Father's Day. I can assure you that your wire and the sentiments contained therein made me feel very good indeed.

I surely enjoyed meeting you for the short time at the luncheon, and I do not know whether or not I thanked you for your hospitality on that occasion, if I failed to do so here it is "thanks a lot".

If you have any extra clippings about any function which you attended on Father's Day in Spokane, I would be glad to see them, and if you want them back for your files I will return same to you.

With best wishes, I am,

Cordially yours,

Ray E. Bigelow
