

6-18-1915

Newspaper Clipping from the Dawson Sentinel, June 18, 1915

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924>

---

Recommended Citation

"Newspaper Clipping from the Dawson Sentinel, June 18, 1915" Whitworth University (1915). Newspapers, Pre-1924. Paper 95.
<https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-newspapersPre1924/95>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Father's Day / Sonora Dodd Collection at Whitworth University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newspapers, Pre-1924 by an authorized administrator of Whitworth University.

The 1917 convention will be at Montevideo.

June 22 is Father's Day. A rose, any kind or color, worn that day will be a tribute to father, living or dead.

Mrs. E. P. Slettedahl, daughter, eBrtha, and son, Peter, went to Fairfield, Swift county, Mon-

CLIPPED FROM

Dawson (Minn.) Sentinel.
FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 1915.

The 1917 convention will be at Montevideo.

June 22 is Father's Day. A rose, any kind or color, worn that day will be a tribute to father, living or dead.

Mrs. E. P. Slettedahl, daughter, eBrtha, and son, Peter, went to Fairfield, Swift county, Mon-

