FATHER'S DAY.

In Japan they observe a Boy's day by hanging out carp flags and giving the little fellows plenty of toy soldiers; also a Girl's day when each little miss is presented with a Japanese doll. Here in America we have a Mother's day. Cartoonists draw sentimental cartoons about her the preacher makes some mention of home without a mother, and the tired business man, if he thinks of it, brings home a dollar's worth of cut flowers. Without wishing to add to our list of holidays, we suggest a Father's day, with a program somewhat as follows: Dad will be allowed to lie abed until 10 o'clock, reading the sporting sheet and smoking cigarettes, after which time a "mawnin's mawnin" followed by buck wheats and steak will be served. The phonograph will then play "What's the Matter With Father" and "Here Comes My Daddy Now," while the daughter of the house will recite "Father, dear Father." This ceremony concluded, presents will be bestowed on father, in the following order: Ten boxes 25 cent cigars, case of club soda, sterling silver bottle opener, case of Scotch or rye, sterling silver cocktail mixer, 1 dozen pairs of silk hose, 1 smoking jacket, 1 humidor, $\frac{1}{2}$ dozen made-to-order shirts, 1 pair slippers, annual pass to base ball park. At 2 p. m., accompanied by several cronies, he will set out for the ball park in an automobile. Here a double-header will be played. The evening will be given over to a five-cent ante, and at midnight a lunch will be served consisting of Swiss cheese sandwiches, hot dogs, goose liver sausages, pate de foie gras, rye bread and beer. The guests will leave at 3 a. m., and the day following will be Sunday.
