

6-20-1953

"Fathers Day," poem by George Lester Denman, June 20, 1953

George Lester Denman

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Denman, George Lester , ""Fathers Day," poem by George Lester Denman, June 20, 1953" Whitworth University (1953).
Correspondence and Documents. Paper 173.
<https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-correspondence/173>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Father's Day / Sonora Dodd Collection at Whitworth University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence and Documents by an authorized administrator of Whitworth University.

George Lester Denman
E 1319 Nina Ave.,
Spokane 3, Wash.,
6/20/53

Fathers Day

--

How little could the Founder trace
The flight that thought would soon attain,
To greet all nations face to face,
On sea and mountain, lake and plain.

May blessings with the Founder stay,
With friends we treasure in the West,
And others far, so far, away;
And keep 'the land we love the best.'

----

To Mrs. John Bruce Dodd

George Lester Dorman
1313 Ninth Ave.
Spokane 3, Wash.
6/20/18

Teachers Day

How little could the founder say
The thing that thought would soon arise,
To greet all nations face to face,
On sea and mountain, lake and plain.

By blessings with the founder say,
With teachers we were made in the world,
And others far, so far, away,
And here "the land we love the best."

To Mrs. John Grace Dorman