Dear Mrs. Dodd:-

I have read of how you started Father's Day and think you did a wonderful thing by starting it.

I am enclosing four of my song folders with my Father's Day song, "Tell Father I'll Be There" that I wrote some years ago. It is sung to the tune of "Tell Mother I'll Be There" which I have included in the folders. I hope you may be able to use it on Father's Day as well as at other times when it would be appropriate to a sermon or talk.

This Father's Song has been sung and broadcast over the radio at the First Baptist Church of Pomona, and at Eugene, Oregon, Portland, Oregon, Bakersfield, Los Angeles, San Diego, Albuquerque, N. Mex., Chicago, Ill., and in many other states. I have a good many lovely letters from Churches where it has been sung. I could not afford to advertise it the last few years, but previous to that I used to receive many orders from many states. If you would care to know how I happened to write this song I will be glad to tell you about it.

I would love to hear from you as to how you like this song.

Very Sincerely,

Mrs. Effie S. Spry.
