FOSSEEN
MAYOR

SPOKANE 1, WASHINGTON

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, the third Sunday in June, which this year is June 17, is nationally commemorated as FATHER'S DAY, and observance is especially fitting in the city of its origin:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Neal R. Fosseen, Mayor of the City of Spokane, State of Washington, do hereby proclaim Sunday, June 17, 1962, to be known as and urge that all citizens of our city pay special heed to the observance of this day, which was founded by Mrs. John Bruce Dodd, one of Spokane's most beloved citizens, and sponsored by religious, patriotic and civic organizations of this nation. I further ask that every son and daughter of our great civic family extend every effort to make this day one of sacred significance and tribute to the supreme fraternity of Fatherhood and especially to all those guarding the peace of the world.

Dated this 7th day of June, 1962

Neal R. Fosseen
Mayor
