Dear Mrs. Dodd:

It is with great pleasure that I extend my greetings to you today in appreciation of your vision which led to the establishment of "Father's Day" in America.

You can take great pride in knowing that Father's Day has been held each year since 1942, when action was first taken on your suggestion. I take great pride in knowing that the suggestion came from a resident of our state, the State of Washington.

I share in the pride of your family, your community, and your country as you receive the Father's Day Award today.

Sincerely yours,

Henry M. Jackson, U.S.S.
