THE JUNIOR CLASS

Presents

Natsihi-1942

(Among the Pines)

Annual Publication

WHITWORTH COLLEGE

Spokane, Washington

Dedication

In presenting this Natsihi of 1942 to you, the staff hopes that it will help make your memories of Whitworth clearer and more lasting. As our theme we have chosen "The Symphony of School Life." Not the complete work, but certain of the better known movements.

We want you to see the different departments as sections of the great Whitworth Symphony, and to realize that each section is as necessary to the total effect as the other. What could the Faculty be but the string section? The core of the Whitworth Symphony, and the part which usually carries the melody. The classes are the wood-winds that are blown upon; sometimes in vain, sometimes dissonantly, but most often to bring out a beautiful theme or aria. We are presenting the campus organizations as the brass section—the part that is so vital to the well-rounded Symphony of Education. Just as the brasses, these organizations help to lend a gayer mood to the work. Naturally sports are the percussion section. As vital as the drum beat to the symphony, sports help regulate and give impetus to school life. Lastly we give you the activities as the discord which is usually present in some form. Candid shots which give us release from everyday correctness.

We wish to dedicate this Natsihi of 1942 to the music department, and to the ones who have made its work more efficient. To Mrs. Carrell and Mrs. Hopkins who have both given unselfishly of their time to make Whitworth greater through music. Mrs. Carrell, who gives everyone an understanding of the greatness and beauty of music; and Mrs. Hopkins, who through her splendid choral groups helps to bring out the song in everyone's heart.

And we wish to make this a lasting monument to the memory of Mr. Uhe, a great man, and a wonderful musician, who was taken from us not long ago. His place can never be filled, and we know that this man who was loved by everyone will not soon be forgotten by Whitworth.

THE STAFF OF THE '42 NATSIHI.

The President's Message

YOUTH FACES LIFE WITH CHRIST

Can you? Will you? You are going out from the quiet and beauty of the lovely campus at Whitworth into a world that is torn and bleeding and dying. You have lived most of your life thus far in a world of peace, at least as far as your nation is concerned. But now you are going into a world that has lost itself in a bitter war, that it may find itself in a better tomorrow. What do you have to take with you as you go? So many of you have done an outstanding piece of work in the mastering of your lessons. The caliber of our entire student body has indeed been unusually high. It has been a year of unprecedented expansion and growth on our campus. Day by day we have watched with eager anticipation the erection of our new gymnasium-auditorium. We have found it easy to visualize what it will mean to the students who will be on our campus tomorrow and in the years that lie ahead. We have watched, too, the construction of our double concrete tennis courts and have realized that this means a new day for sports at Whitworth. We have been thrilled because of the acquisition of our new "Orgatron" and are looking forward to the concerts which shall be ours as we listen to the golden tones of this splendid organ. Yes, it has been a year of unparalleled growth along many lines.

But these are "things", equipment, and you cannot take them with you as you go out into a troubled world. There are some splendid possessions which may be yours, however, as you go forth from Whitworth's campus. You may, if you will, take with you the aroma of priceless friendships. Here on this friendly campus, you have met men and women and youth who have contributed tremendously to your life. You have learned some lessons you may forget but your lives will be everlastingly enriched because, while here, your life has touched others and you will not be the same.

Then too, you will take with you as you go out into a world of sorrow and tragedy, the enrichment that has come because while here you have lived with men and women of sterling character, spiritual discernment and intellectual greatness. You have been taught by men and women who will live in your lives because they in their turn sat at the feet of the Master Teacher and learned of Him. A college education cannot be measured in terms of grades and achievement. The success of this year may not be known until some future crisis finds you strong because of the yielding of your life to the influence of some teacher and the lessons learned have at long last crystallized into positive action.

Above all else as you go, go with the Eternal Christ whom you have met here and who will be with you at every fork in the roads. You are not ready to leave this campus if you go without Him. Nothing in all this world can ruin your life if you go with Him. He, too, faced a world of disorder and bloodshed. Life was held cheaply and ideals were low. But He conquered! He never lost the vision of a world redeemed and although He died for the cause He advocated, He conquered and He lives today. You must not measure your life by its length, its output. But rather, what do you have to take with you as you now face a life of stark reality and grim uncertainty? You may face life with firm step and steady eye, if you face life with Christ. Christian education is worthy of the name only as those who have studied on the Christian campus go out to live the Christ life. So go forth into a world of conflict to live a life of poise, of victory, and of splendid achievement, and may the Christ go with you as you go.

PRESIDENT FRANK F. WARREN.

Our Faculty

"Friendship like a pearl, is a gem not found in shallow waters, but one must dive deep to discover it in its most perfect form." The great spirit of friendship which permeates the Whitworth College campus also characterizes its faculty. Students have found real friendship and fellowship among members of the faculty who at all times stand ready to assist with problems, lend spiritual guidance, and to make necessary sacrifices for their advancement.

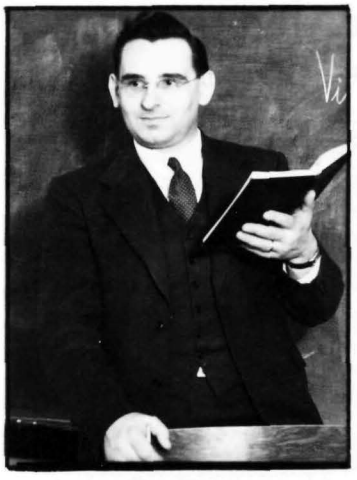
Whitworth College has been especially favored with a well qualified faculty composed of men and women who are outstanding in their respective fields, many of them having traveled abroad as well as at home in their preparation for service. The question is often asked, why these professors select a small Christian college when each year they are offered very attractive positions and salaries? The answer comes back that in colleges such as Whitworth, there is the opportunity to help mold character and to guide students in a well-rounded curriculum, thus permitting the Christian emphasis which is essential to the full development of any young man or woman.

It has been expressed that there is a joy which comes from serving young people in the Christian college, a joy not "found in shallow waters," but found only when students and faculty can come together on one common ground and consider the problems at hand in the light of Jesus Christ whom they love and are seeking to serve in their daily walk through life.

MERTON D. MUNN, Ed. D.; Dean of the College. This newcomer to the campus has won a definite place in our hearts.

MARION R. JENKINS, M. A.; Dean of Women. To keep every Whitworth girl happy is her task. Beside her many other duties "Mommie" Jenkins is an expert social organizer.

OTTO G. BACHIMONT, M. A.; Head of Modern Language Department. His ability to converse in French and German continues to amaze all students.



ELIZABETH BACHIMONT, B. A.; Modern Language Department Assistant. Popular with students and faculty alike, she is best known in the role of hostess.

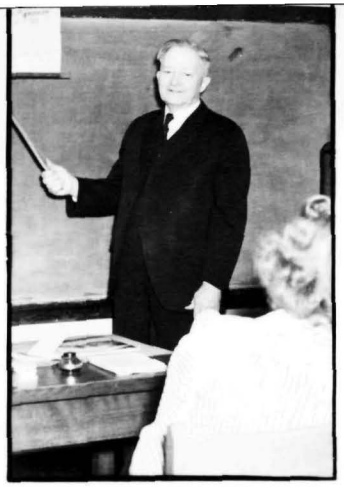
ESTELLA E. BALDWIN, M. A.; Registrar and Head of the Office. A very pleasant help in time of need, especially on Registration Day.

MARY BOPPELL, B. S.; Head of the Home Economics Department. The increased interest in Home Economics courses is proof of her efficiency.

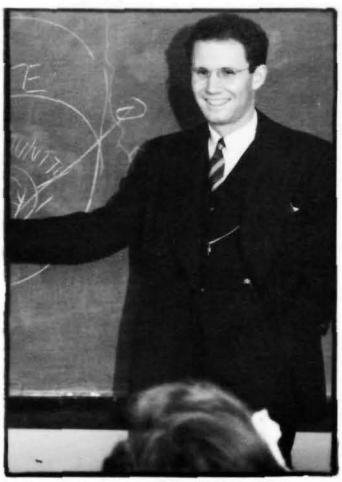
L. K. BOWERSOX, Ph. D.; Head of the History Department. Walking encyclopedia of historical facts, emphasized by his Phi Beta Kappa Key.

JOHN A. CARLSON, M. S.; Head of the Mathematics Department. Well-liked by his students because of his untiring efforts to make mathematics practical.

ANNA J. CARREL, A. B., M. M., A. A. G. O.; Piano Instructor. A wealth of information to pass on to students. Musician and House-Mother par excellence.



J. W. COUNTERMINE, M. A., D. D.; Head of the Bible Department. Knows the Bible backward and forward. Students, beware of theological discussions.



ALBERT CULVERWELL, M. A.; Sociology and Political Science. His aim is to make all students conscious of the opportunities in the field of sociology.

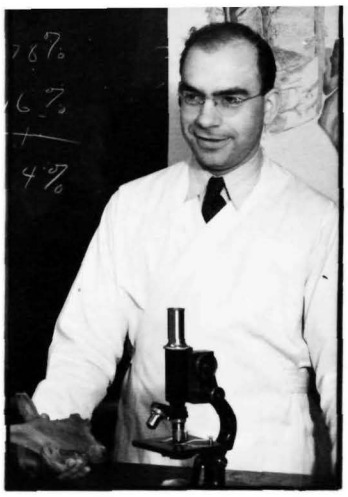
OSCAR K. DIZMANG, M. A.; Head of the Economics Department. Ever willing to explain the mysteries of the law of supply and demand.

ERNESTINE EVANS, M. A.; Instructor in Shorthand and Typing, Secretary to the President. Cheerfully did her work despite the headaches of Shorthand and Typing classes.

JAMES FORRESTER, B. A.; Promotional Director. Whitworth is always foremost in the mind of this jolly Scot.

WILLIAM GAVIN, B. S.; Athletic Coach. Manages to keep busy with sports, biology, and flying, not to mention James Lawrence.

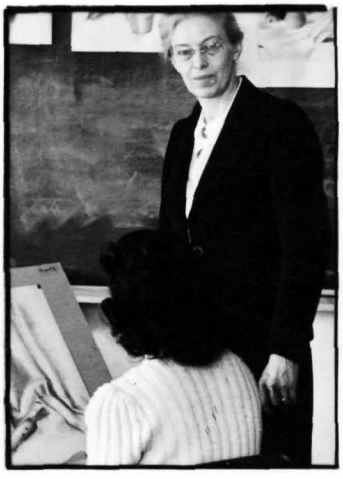
ELIZABETH GUSTAFSON, M. S.; Librarian. Her unassuming attitude has a stabilizing effect unon the less docile students.



PAUL V. GUSTAFSON, M. S.; Head of the Biology Department. Remembering his own student days, "Gus" succeeds in making biology understandable.

FRANCIS TILEY HARDWICK, Ph. D.; Psychology and Philosophy. Whenever Whitworth is mentioned, students think of Dr. Hardwick and his English ways.

WINIFRED McNAIR HOPKINS, B. A.; Head of the Voice Department. "Hoppie" always gives her best in the interest of Whitworth.



RUTH FISKEN LARGE, M. A.; Head of the Art Department. A valuable addition to the faculty.

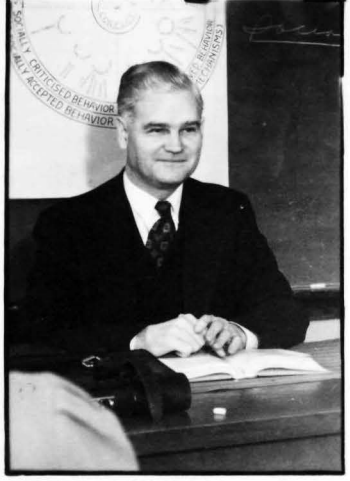
HELEN LUCILE MAGILL M. A.; Head of the English Department. Most conscientious faculty member.

THERON B. MAXON, M. A.; Christian Education Instructor. Whitworth students wish that they could see more of this man.

B. C. NEUSTEL, M. S.; Head of the Chemistry Department. To be consistently chosen as senior class adviser is proof of his popularity and sincerity.

STANLEY J. NEWCOMB, B. A., Th. B.; Head of the Speech Department. Promising young playwrite and playboy.

LILIAN G. PECK, B. Di.; Bursar. The one who keeps the books straight and never makes an error.



CHARLES POOLE, M. A.; Psychology and Education. A gentleman through and through, even when he reminds you to do better work.

RALPH C. SCHLICHTIG, M. S.; Physics Department. Efficiency plus when it comes to repairing machinery—with the exception of the bell system.

ARTHUR EMIL UHE, Graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Brussels; Head of the Music Department. We will long remember the contribution he made to Whitworth.

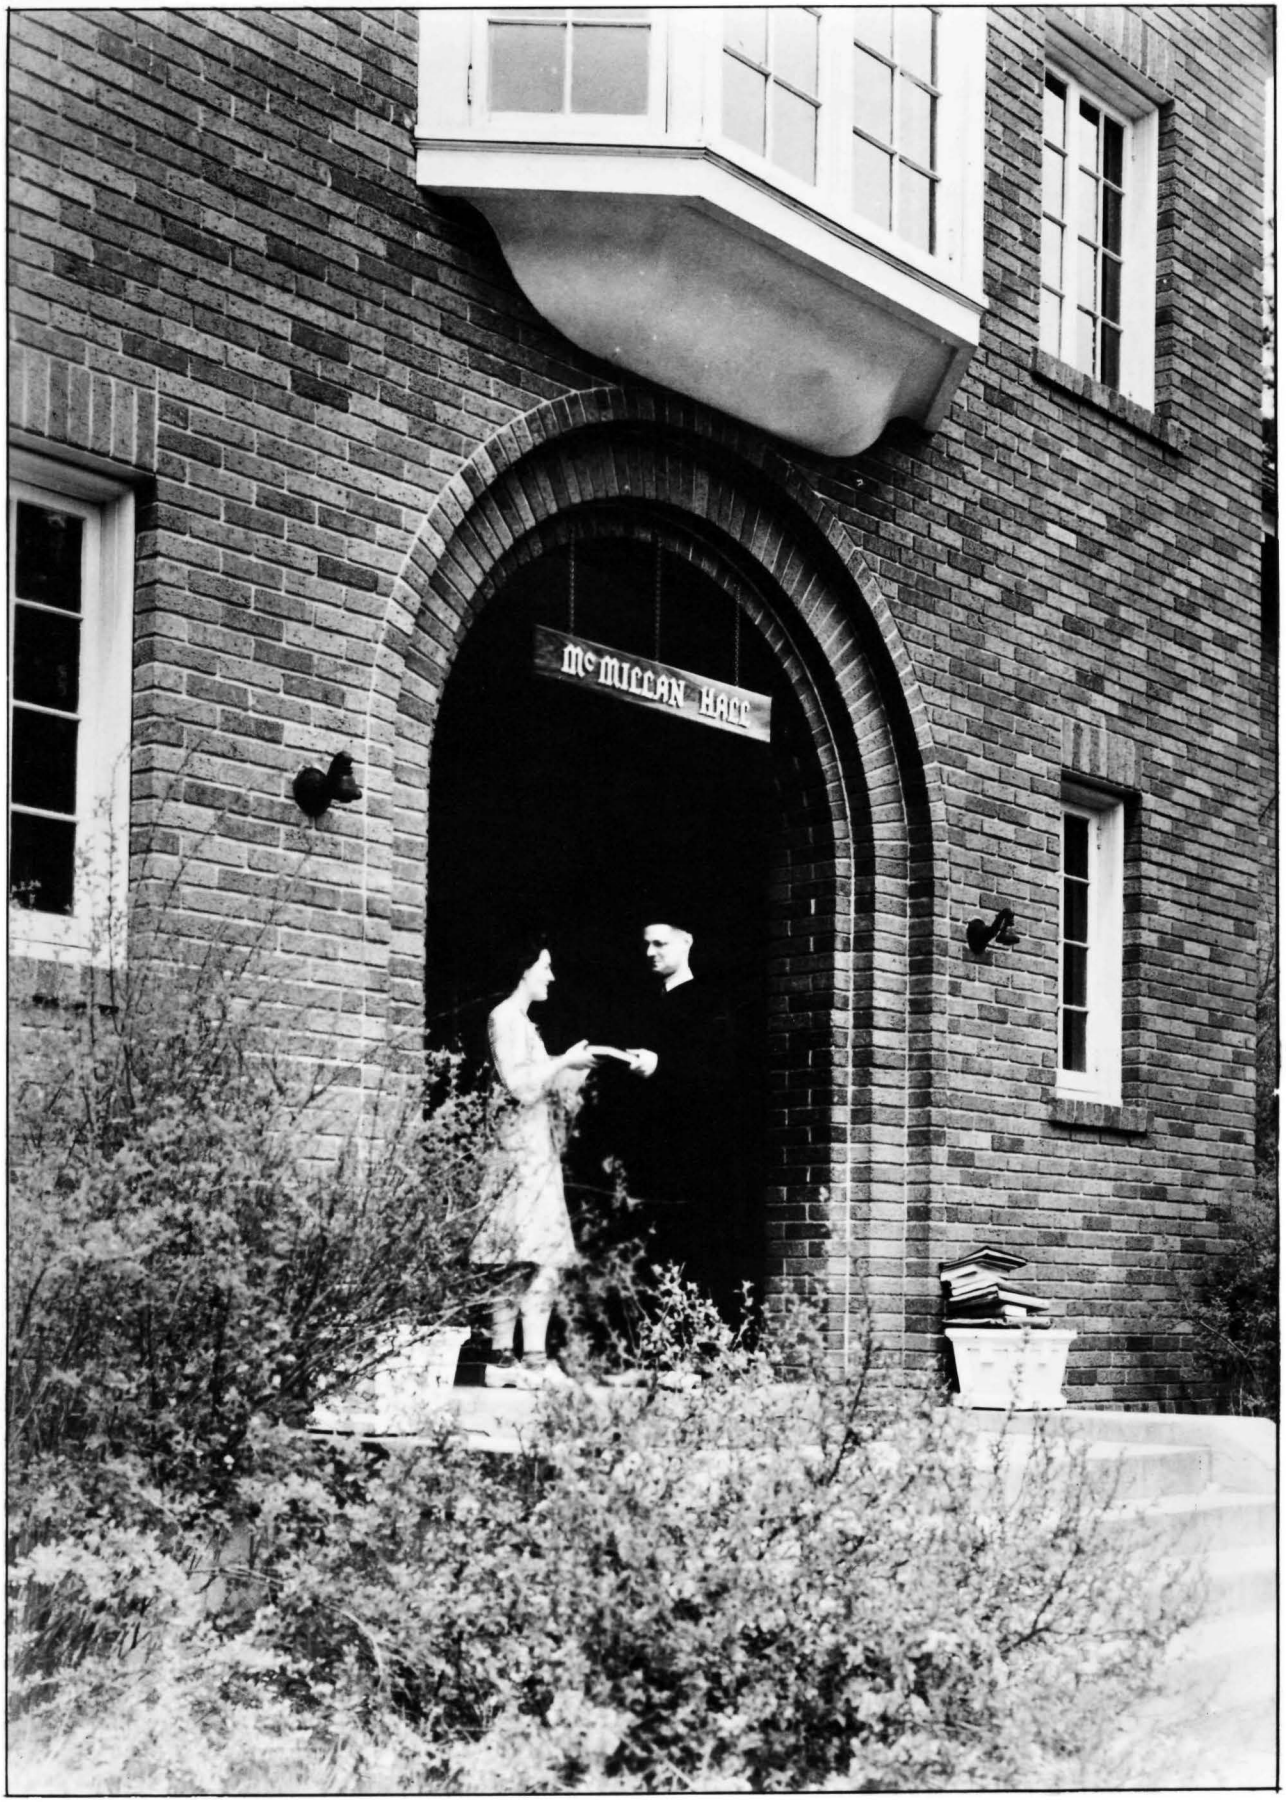
PHILIP L. WILSON, Custodian of Buildings and Grounds. "Prof" is willing, ready, and able to help wherever needed. Cooking comes second nature to him.

LOIS MORGAN, R. N. Wherever there's a sickness, there's "Nursie." What more could one ask?

Classes



McMILLAN HALL

Busy Classes

One hundred and seventy-five Whitworthians—just one big happy family—united in the common purpose of preparing for the future as well as enjoying the present. The four class groups were speedily organized in the fall and each was ready to assist the school in every way possible.

Probably the two outstanding projects of the year were Homecoming and all of the activities connected therewith, and the "Bricks-krieg" drive. In both instances the value of class organization and participation was shown.

This year the members of each class distinguished themselves by breaking traditions: the Freshmen gathered fuel for two bonfires; the Sophomores won the Frosh-Soph fight; the Juniors went on a picnic before the Seniors; and the Seniors merely had breakfast at the home of their advisers early one morning.

At the class parties students had an opportunity to become better acquainted with fellow classmen.

Class organizations are essential and valuable. We will long remember the fine spirit of co-operation shown by those who served with us on committees. We will remember, too, the fine qualities of loyalty, service, and trustworthiness which were evidenced in the successful completion of class projects.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Whitworth is fortunate in having a number of actively loyal graduates who are interested in making the Alumni Association an integral part of the College program. This year the following Whitworthians were officers of the Association:

Mrs. S. A. Postell	President
Werner Rosenquist	Eastern Washington Vice-President
Carl Boppell	Western Washington Vice-President
Karl K. Rupp	Bay Area of California Vice-President
Charles H. Frazier	First Alumni Trustee
Melvin K. Fariss	Member at Large
Helen Ludwigson	Secretary of Association
Ward N. Fancher, Jr.	Treasurer
James Goodsell	Senior Class Representative
Paul Wikstrom	Publicity and Alumni Secretary
Jeannette E. Foster	Bay Area Secretary

For the first time in the history of the college, an Alumni office was opened on the campus with a part-time Alumni secretary in charge. This progress was made through the combined efforts of the Administration, the Board of Trustees, and the Alumni Executive Board.

The WHITWORTHIAN and the ALUMNI QUARTERLY were used for the purpose of publishing news of interest to alumni. Carl Blanford, student editor of the WHITWORTHIAN, was very generous in contributing space for bi-weekly news stories. The QUARTERLY and special announcements were mimeographed in the Alumni office.

The Alumni Ideals Award Committee selected Lee Rodkey as the fourth annual winner of the cup and check. Werner Rosenquist, committee chairman, conducted the award ceremony.

A motion picture projector complete with sound equipment was the special gift presented to the college this year. Contributions for this fund were solicited by mail. Whitworthians new and old contributed in fine order from all sections of the country. Presentation of the gift was made in the Alumni chapel assembly during Home-coming week-end. President Alice Postell made the presentation.

During the year the association became affiliated with the American Alumni Council and had representatives at the Northwest Convention held in the Desert Hotel in Spokane, February 27 and 28. The Alumni Association president took part in the ground-breaking exercises for the new gymnasium, by special invitation of the College Administration.

Closing social events of the year were the Alumni picnic held on the evening of the May Festival, and the annual Alumni banquet on May 23. The class of '42 were guests at this latter meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Werner Rosenquist were in general charge.

JUNIOR CLASS

Junior Class

The juniors of 1941-42 began their year by electing Sam Smith president; Margaret Skeels, vice-president; Ruth Baldwin, secretary; Helen Carlson, treasurer; and Carl Blanford, social chairman.

The social program for the year included grand parties at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Hardwick, the class advisers, and a picnic in the April showers. This picnic resulted from the annual senior sneak. A jolly wet time was had by all.

In May the juniors bade the seniors goodbye at a party. It is difficult to see them leave, but we are ready to try to fill their places. Our best wishes go with them, and may this Natsihi give them many happy memories of Whitworth.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

In the annual Frosh-Soph fight at the Fish Hatchery, the sophomore men put up a strong but losing fight against the freshmen.

During the fall semester a roller-skating party followed by a wiener roast was enjoyed by members of the class and their guests.

This year the sophomores excelled in the field of sports. They won the intra-mural track meet, and provided the greater part of the voluntary labor on the new concrete tennis courts.

The other officers who led their class in its activities were: Gene Marshall, vice-president; Eleanor Hook, secretary; Harold Minnich, treasurer; and Regina Bishop, social chairman. Mr. and Mrs. Culverwell served as advisers for the group.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Freshman Class

An especially large freshman class entered Whitworth last fall. Eager to become acquainted with each other, and with Whitworth's traditions, they thoroughly enjoyed their freshman orientation week and its many activities.

The initiation weeks were endured peaceably, and the men got many pointers to pass on to future freshmen.

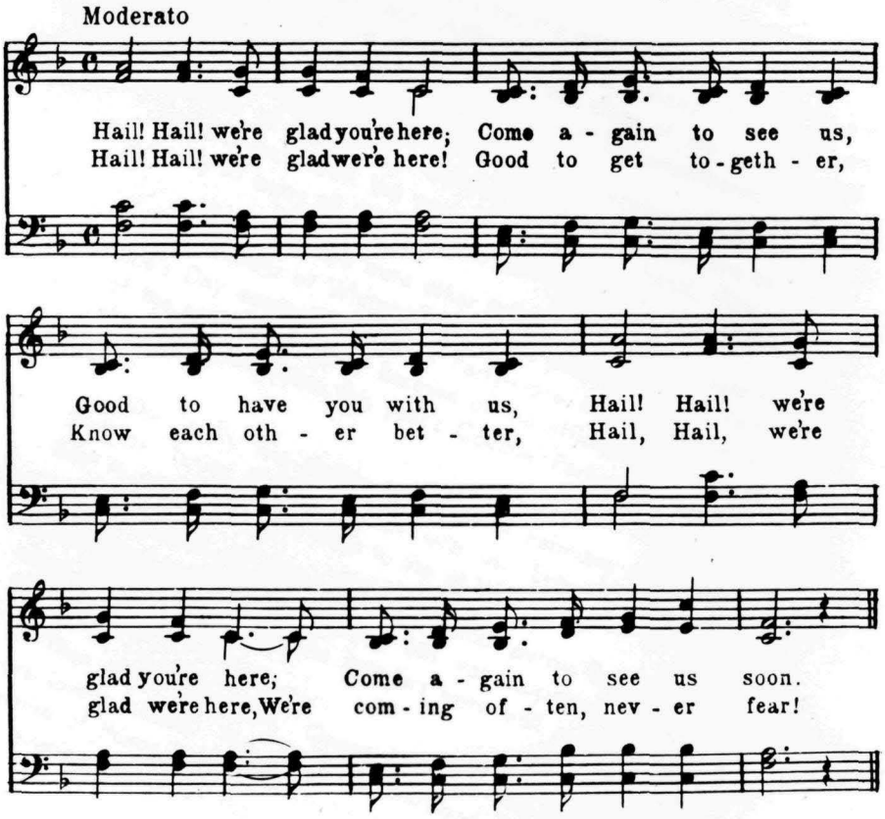
The class showed its true spirit in the way in which it pitched in and built a second Homecoming bonfire after the first one was burned down.

In a special chapel program presented by the freshmen, the other students became conscious of the many talented members of this class of 1945.

Vince Gregg, president; Don Steele, vice-president; Mary Edith Millay, secretary; and Jeanne Bourland, social chairman, served as officers of the best freshman class we have seen. The class advisers were Mr. and Mrs. Gavin.

Organizations

Hail, Hail, We're Glad You're Here



Campus Organizations

From any point of view, the organizations of a college are the most important. Although there are many things which go to make up life at Whitworth, the clubs of the campus, and the friendships made in these clubs will be remembered longest.

An especially large freshman class received their first real sample of Whitworth tradition at the annual Home-coming celebration. With the end of initiation at hand, they were ready to enjoy all the festivities connected with this occasion.

Of course there were other things going on, because the social calendar at Whitworth is always packed, but on Valentine's Day came the Colonial Party—one of the big events of the second semester. Because of the efficient planning of the social committee, this year's Colonial Party was the best ever.

Our family was sizably increased in February when the Spokane Junior College joined with us. Everyone did his best to try to accustom them to life at Whitworth.

The month of May was Confusion personified. The Bricks-Krieg held on the 5th and 6th was supported by all loyal Whitworthians, and the invaders were well received in Spokane.

Then same May Day. Queen Verna I. and her court were lovely indeed. The play, "In Sherwood Forest," gave promise of things to come from our own Mr. Newcomb, and the evening recital on the new "Orgatron" was enjoyed by many.

Two weeks of rest before final exams, and everyone expected to get a lot done, but the inexhaustible supply of picnics always came first, and by the end of a hectic school year, everyone was ready for the much-needed vacation.

Executive Board

EARL KLEIN, President; limiting the demands on the budget was one of his chief worries.

REX BLUMHAGEN, Vice-President; his efforts to provide a well-rounded social program were appreciated by the students.

HELEN GHORMLEY, Secretary; faithfully recorded the decisions of the masculine members.

ROBERT BRAULT, Student Council representative; a late-comer, but a valuable addition to this group.

Student Council

The Student Council is the representative body on the campus, deriving its membership from presidents and vice-presidents of the various clubs, organizations, and classes, and the editors and business manager of the WHITWORTHIAN and NATSIHI. Through the recommendations of this group, the A. S. W. C. constitution has been revamped.

Social Committee

REX BLUMHAGEN, chairman; unquestionably the man for the job.

ELINOR SCHELL, senior representative; ever willing to do the tasks assigned to her.

CARL BLANFORD, junior representative; his printing skill is a valuable asset to this group.

REGINA BISHOP, sophomore representative; her enthusiasm for doing her part well increased the efficiency of the committee.

MISS JENKINS, faculty adviser; always on hand to act as co-ordinator.

Sefelo

Sefelo is a campus organization composed of the women of Ballard and McMillan Halls with Miss Jenkins and Mrs. Carrel as housemothers. The aim of this group is to create a spirit of friendliness and harmony which is essential to dormitory life.

The outstanding social events of the year were the Women's Open Dorm, Heart Sister Week and the annual Sefelo Mother's Tea.

Officers for the year were: First semester: president, Delores Muench; vice-president, Regina Bishop; secretary, Betty Rosenbaum; treasurer, Kay Sanborn; house committee chairman, Margaret Nielsen; social chairman, Marion Wall; hostess, Mary Anne Dresser. Second semester: president, Marion Wall; vice-president, Lenore Trevitt; secretary, Audrey Brault; treasurer, Margaret Skeels; house committee chairman, Florence Reynolds; social chairman, Selma Schmidt; and hostess, Marcia Parker.

First row: Christensen, Dugan, Gardner, Bourland, M. Klein, Kitt, Burdon, B. McKay, Joss, Beggs. Second row: Dekker, Blindauer, Millay, Nielsen, Hansen, A. Brault, Jones, Holbrook, Trevitt, Best, Hodge, Hamilton, Ausink. Third row: Smick, Miss Jenkins, M. Ruby, Stueckle, Bishop, Schmidt, Wall, McNeely, Rosenbaum, Douglas, Sanborn, Mrs. Carrel, Bovee, Olmsted, Skeels, Muench, Reynolds.

Alpha Chi

The men's dormitory organization on the campus is known as Alpha Chi. One of the aims of this group is to solve the problems which interfere with harmonious dormitory life.

The men sponsored a birthday dinner in February. On April 11, they presented a men's open dorm program entitled, "Get Thee Hence to De Lowitt's Castle, Sir Swardsmore," written and produced by Sydney K. Eaton.

Officers for the first semester were: Irwin Potter, president; Dick Schwab, secretary; and Hal Minnich, treasurer. Second semester officers were: Jim Taylor, president; Jack Starrett, secretary; and Loren Gothberg, treasurer. The proctor of the dorm was Stanley E. Newcomb, who will long be remembered by the boys for his custom of entertaining at midnight feeds.

Whitworth Players

Under the competent leadership of Robert Brault the Whitworth Players have once again come through a triumphant year. The group presented "Oh Kay" for the Homecoming students in October. "A Painting for the Duchess" was given several times during the Christmas season. The highlight of the year was "Death Takes a Holiday" which was presented for the public in the Rogers High School auditorium. The Easter production was "First of the Week." This year the group undertook a new venture, that of presenting a play for the May Day royalty. The play, which was written and produced by Mr. Newcomb, was entitled "In Sherwood Forest."

The social activities of the year included a party in the Marine Room of the Coeur d'Alene Hotel in the fall and a party at the home of Barbara Miller in Rosalia.

Assisting the president, Robert Brault, were: vice-president, Barbara Miller; secretary, Verna Bunkelman; and treasurer, Gerald Dean.

Alpha Psi Omega

Seven students on the Whitworth campus had the distinction of becoming members of the Theta Rho cast of Alpha Psi Omega, National Dramatic Honorary Fraternity. This is the first national fraternity on the campus as well as the first cast of Alpha Psi Omega in the State of Washington.

Mr. Newcomb was the faculty adviser for the group. Students who were charter members included: Robert Brault, Barbara Miller, Gerald Dean, Sydney Eaton, Irwin Potter, Loren Gothberg, and Helen Ghormley.

Pirettes

Service was the aim of the Pirettes, an organization of Whitworth women chosen for their scholarship and leadership. For the Pirettes this was a year of activity, commencing with the installation of officers at a fireside meeting in the Home Economics building. The rocket-flag display at the Homecoming game was made possible by this group as well as the sale of cider and doughnuts.

Mrs. Clarence Dill was the guest speaker at the club's chapel program. Under the leadership of this organization the women of the campus cooperated for a program of Red Cross work. The group was hostess to the girls who entered Whitworth in January at a Valentine Tea and with the W. A. A. entertained at the Women's Mixer. The Pirette Inspirational Award was presented to Don Steele at the All-Awards Banquet. The closing event of the year was a breakfast for the entire group at the Davenport Hotel.

Officers were: Verna Bunkelman, captain; Helen Carlson, first mate; Phyllis Carson, second mate; Florence Maurite Johnson, purser; and Miss Marion Jenkins, adviser.

First row: M. Boughton, Hook, Carlson, F. Johnson, Miller, Olmsted, Carson, Schell, Ghormley, Skeels, R. Baldwin, Bunkelman, Wall, Miss Jenkins.

Phi Alpha

One of the smallest organizations on the campus, numerically speaking, is Phi Alpha. The strict requirements of this group, that one must have a grade-point average of 2.3 and have completed sixty hours of work on the Whitworth campus, necessarily limit the membership to the very intelligent students.

This year Marvin Moos and Vernon Forkner were accepted as associate members.

Professor Paul Gustafson has been president of the organization and Verna Bunkelman has been secretary for the past year.

First row: Moos, Nozaki, Mrs. Carrel, Mr. Gustafson. Second row: Hoyt, Forkner, Bunkelman, Miss Jenkins.

Alpha Beta

Under the capable leadership of Evelyn Olmsted, Alpha Beta has had a very successful year. Alpha Beta, which means "the best in life," takes its membership from Whitworth women interested in Home Economics.

The new members of the club were greeted at a tea the first of the year. Later the formal initiation of new members and the installation of officers took place. Before Christmas the group prepared a Christmas basket for a needy family. Three all-school roller-skating parties were sponsored by the organization. Mrs. C. C. Dill was the speaker at a Fireside meeting. The girls honored their mothers at a tea and style show in March. The closing event of the year was the annual formal spring banquet.

Miss Mary Boppell was the adviser for Alpha Beta; Elinor Schell, vice-president; Charlotte Hansen, secretary; Mary Elaine Dugan, treasurer; Louise Holder, sergeant-at-arms.

Modern Language Club

Under the supervision of Marvin Moos and Joyce Warren, respective social chairmans of the German and French Clubs, the members of these two groups enjoyed six very interesting parties and meetings. Professor Maxon gave a talk about the Doukabors of Canada at one meeting. Each member attending the Christmas party received a gift from the club advisers, Mr. and Mrs. Bachimont. The German Club presented a Christmas play for chapel, December 19, 1941. Forty students attended the play, "Tartuffe," which was presented at the Eastern Washington College of Education. The closing event of the year was the club picnic.

Dolores Muench was president of the German Club; Marvin Moos, vice-president; and Ruth Baldwin, secretary-treasurer. Sam Smith was president of the French Club; Keith Hickox, vice-president; Eleanor Hook, secretary-treasurer.

Gamma Kai Zeta

To help Whitworth College by assisting with all art projects on the campus is the aim of the newly organized art club, Gamma Kai Zeta. Thirteen new members of this group were installed at a formal dinner party in April. Mrs. Philip Wilson has the honor of being the first honorary member of this organization.

Rolla Riley has served as president of the group; Sydney Eaton, vice-president; Dora Tracy, secretary; Florence Reynolds, treasurer; and Mrs. Large, adviser.

International Relations Club

To interest and to enlighten public opinion has been the purpose of the International Relations Club. This group received a number of books on international affairs from the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. The members of the club did not support one view, but discussed how best to treat conditions which prevail throughout the world by referring to the principles underlying international conduct and international law. Students interested in Sociology were affiliated with this group, which had Professor Culverwell for its adviser.

Boots and Saddle Club

The reorganization of the Boots and Saddle Club has given many of the students an opportunity to learn the rudiments of horsemanship. The members of this group have devoted Saturday mornings to riding. In May the riders enjoyed a three-hour ride and breakfast as the club picnic.

"Make your horses go where you want them to, you're the boss," has been the battle-cry of Mr. Forrester, the club's able adviser. Ruth Huntley has served as president and Marian Ruby, as secretary.

Montana Club

Once again the Montana Club has come to life with ten rugged Montanans anxious to carry the banner of their home state. Although this group was not organized until late in the year, they have gazed into the future and planned some activities for the next school year.

The members of this group represent several districts in Montana: Mrs. Peck and Marcia Parker, Kalispell; Miss Evans, Great Falls; Margaret Nielsen, Albert Brown, and Dick Schwab, Corvallis; Mary Boyle, Libby; Marilyn Blindauer and Don Steele, Hamilton; and Robert Lee, Stevensville.

Medici Futuri

The Medici Futuri Club is composed of all students on the campus interested in pre-medics, pre-dentistry, and the women who are graduate nurses. The members of this group have availed themselves of a number of opportunities to become more familiar with the work of their chosen field.

The outstanding social event of the year was the Christmas party held at the home of Ruth Huntley.

Gerald Dean served the group in the capacity of manager and Professor Gustafson was adviser for the organization.

First row: Gothberg, Dean, R. Ruby, R. Blumhagen, Mansfield, Richter. Second row: Morgan, Boggs, M. Johnson, Anderson, Nozaki, Huntley, Muench.

Whitworthian

To Carl Blanford belongs the credit for the success of this year's WHITWORTHIAN. During the year the paper came out regularly every two weeks, and this fact made it more interesting to the students.

The present members of the staff include Robert Ruby, associate editor and business manager; Bruce Ferry, religious editor; Verna Bunkelman, Betty Rosenbaum, and George Van Luven, reporters; and John Henricksen, Lorraine Kitt, Muriel Ausink, Odin Baugh, and Jack Daniels, columnists.

First row: Dekker, M. Ruby, Kitt, Hamilton, Ausink. Second row: R. Ruby, Penniman, Henricksen, Daniels, Ferry, Blanford.

Boughton, Schell, Johnson, Muench, Miller, Olmsted, Baldwin, Ghormley, Kitt, Dyer.

WHITWORTH CHOIR

This year, as in previous years, the outstanding organization in the music department was the Whitworth Choir under the direction of Winifred McNair Hopkins. The members of this group traveled to Bonners Ferry, Sandpoint, Newport, Post Falls, Omak, and other small towns near Spokane to present sacred and secular concerts.

Once again the choir pleased many audiences with the presentation of the "Messiah" by George F. Handel. An unusual privilege was enjoyed by this organization, that of singing Stainer's "Crucifixion" on the occasion of the dedication of a new pipe organ at the First Presbyterian Church at Sandpoint, Idaho.

WOMEN'S TRIO

Number 1

Mary Lou, Betty and Barbara started the year as the "Step Sisters." These snappy ladies carried more than pretty voices with them when they filled their engagements. Our talented little five foot pianist, Mary Lou, thrilled many audiences. Five foot two Betty carried a happy song. Five foot four Barbara, a senior this year, brought a laugh or tear to many with her excellent readings. Joyce Warren was the accompanist.

MALE QUARTET

Well, fiddle dee dee, if it isn't the Male Quartet. The handsomest foursome on the campus, Harold, Bob, George, and Sam, a perfect blend in song and men. With their trusty accompanist, Merlyn Philo, this group boasts more public appearances than any other musical organization on the campus.

WOMEN'S TRIO

Number 2

Gwen, Joyce and Lorraine, three pretty little maids, sang for a number of luncheons, teas, and church services. They made a home-run with the student body when they sang so beautifully at the Colonial Party. Marjorie Klein capably handled the accompaniments for the girls.

Christian Life

The Christian Life On Our Campus

To be of greater service to Christ among the young people of Spokane and the Inland Empire was the goal toward which the students of Whitworth College have worked this year. To progress toward this goal, two things were necessary; Christian growth in the lives of the individual students, and efficient organization of activities. The first was promoted through the challenging and inspiring Chapel services with speakers of such world-wide fame as Daniel A. Poling, president of the International Society of Christian Endeavor, interesting visiting missionaries or other special speakers brought out through the cooperation of the local churches where they were holding meetings, many local pastors, faculty members and student groups; through the Bible classes included in the curriculum; through the regular dormitory prayer groups; through the regular Sunday and mid-week Christian Endeavor meetings; and through the weekly student body prayer meetings. Inspiration which lingers on and finds definite expression in a closer walk with God is found in the women's conference sponsored by the W. A. A. in the fall, and the men's conference sponsored by the W. Club in the spring.

To avoid the duplication of activities or the omission of any worthwhile parts of the religious program, the various Christian organizations on the campus early in the year formed a coordination council with a chairman appointed by the student executive board. This council arranged the gospel team work so that interested students, not just any one organization, could take part, and so that all gospel team appointments could be handled through one office.

Out of this program and organization the student body has taken every opportunity to share with others the benefits of having the "Love of God shed abroad in our hearts" and the privilege of attending a Christian college. In addition to the gospel team work, a number of students have supplied regular pastorates during the year. An Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship conference in which students from six colleges in the Inland Empire participated was held on our campus in November, and another at Pullman in April was supported by our students. Dr. C. A. Kircher of Sacramento, California, was the speaker for our Spiritual Emphasis Week, and he was sponsored by the student body in a downtown meeting to which all of the young people of Spokane and vicinity were invited. Whitworth students have had a part in the regular Sunday morning broadcast of radio station KHQ, the Whitworth Chapel Hour.

Whitworth helps students so that they, in turn, may be of service to others in the name of Christ.

Christian Endeavor

Challenged by the goal, "That Christ may have pre-eminence," the Whitworth College Christian Endeavor has surged forward to new growth in the Lord Jesus Christ during 1941-42. Nearly everyone on the campus has helped to promote the Sunday and Wednesday evening meetings of the group or to conduct evangelistic work on gospel teams.

The activities of the society have been designed to meet the spiritual needs of the members and at the same time to provide rich fellowship in practical living in the Whitworth family. Mrs. F. T. Hardwick conducted a mission study class on home and foreign problems. Christian Endeavor led a chapel program and a Christian Endeavor Hour over KFIO. During the Christmas season, carolers rang out "the old, old story" in the neighborhood of the campus.

The officers of the society were: Richard Schwab, president; Helen Ghormley, vice-president; Selma Schmidt, secretary; and Paul Merkel, treasurer. During the first semester Eleanor Ruppert was secretary of the organization.

As the future dawns on a war-torn world, Christian Endeavor at Whitworth desires the practical living of a "constant faith in a changing world."

Volunteer Fellowship

This year the members of the Volunteer Fellowship have had an opportunity to display the qualities of leadership they possessed through Gospel Team work.

The group sponsored the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship Conference in the fall and sent delegates to a similar conference held at Pullman in the spring.

Joe Dixon faithfully served as president for the year.

Life Service Club

The Life Service Club is composed of women students who have answered the call of their Lord to full-time Christian service. Their aim is to become "doers of the Word, and not hearers only."

This club was organized in November, 1941, with ten charter members. The activities for 1941-42 have included two dinner meetings, a steak-fry and a picnic. The group has sponsored the weekly all-college prayer meetings and has conducted two chapel services.

The officers of this organization were: president, Virginia Lee Nance; vice-president, Charlotte Hansen; secretary-treasurer, Jeanne Bourland; program chairman, Betty Rosenbaum; historian, Jane Bovee; and adviser, Mrs. Frank F. Warren.

Philadelphians

The Philadelphians have a three-fold purpose: (1) To be actively engaged in Christian service on the campus and elsewhere; (2) To help young men understand the responsibilities of full-time service; (3) To lead others to a definite, personal experience with Jesus as their Savior.

The members of this group have conducted seven chapel services during the school year. The Homiletics class, held each Friday, has given members of the group an opportunity to deliver sermons and receive constructive criticism from fellow members.

A permanent registration system of the Philadelphians has been adopted to enable present Philadelphians to become acquainted with the work of former members and to enable former and present members to establish contacts for prayer-fellowship.

The officers of the Philadelphian Club for the year were: Stewart Sparrow, president; Bill Hoppe, vice-president; and Bill Wright, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Countermine has served as adviser for the group.

Spokane Junior College

The organizations of Spokane Junior College suffered a setback when the student body moved across the river and among the pines.

Their class organizations were partly absorbed in the Whitworth system, nevertheless, they remained separate in regard to certain social and business affairs.

The various social organizations were able to continue their activities as had been previously scheduled. However, some of the social events of the two schools, such as the All-Award Banquet, were joint affairs.

The Junior College posted an excellent basketball team as usual. Despite many handicaps the boys completed their schedule in a style which would do credit to representatives of a much larger school.

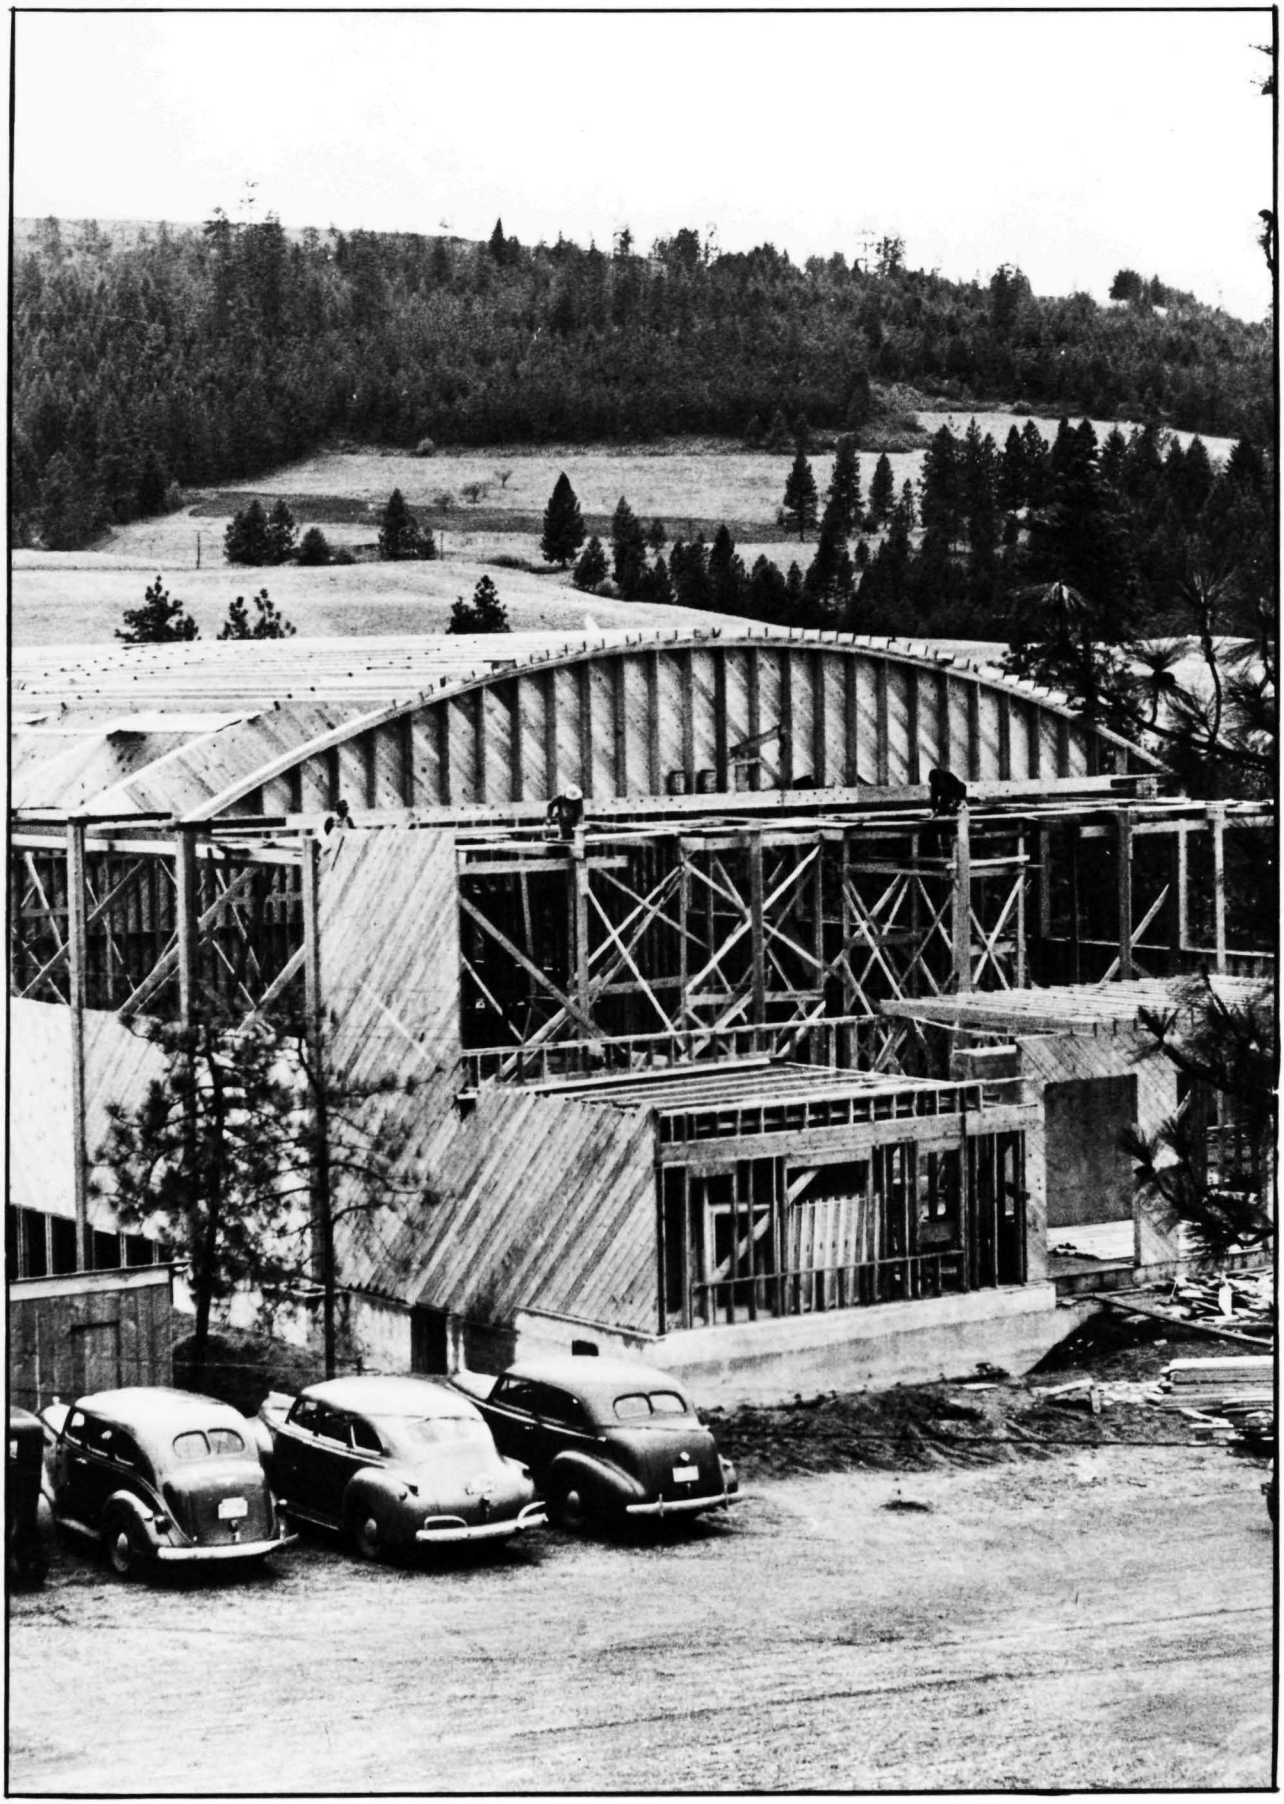
Sports



Football

Only three lettermen, Bruce McCullough, Paul Merkel, and Don McInturff, returned this year, and Coach Gavin had to build most of his football team from freshman material.

The first encounter was with Lewiston, on their own field. Although outplaying them, the Pirates were held to a 0-0 tie.

The following Thursday night at Walla Walla, Whitman won over the Pirates by a 20-0 score.

Playing in their new suits for the first time, and at the first home game, the Pirates went down under the weight of the Cheney players to lose 35-7. Outweighed twenty-five pounds to a man, the entire squad showed plenty of fight and spirit.

A fine Home-coming crowd was disappointed as the Whitworth Pirates were defeated 13-0 by Montana School of Mines.

Traveling to Helena, Montana, the Pirates played their hearts out, but came off the field on the short end of the 9-0 score. The Carroll team was undefeated last season.

In the last game of the season, the Lewiston Loggers trounced Whitworth to the tune of 19-0.

This leaves a record of one tie and five losses. All but one senior, Bill Richter, will be back next year, so Coach Gavin should make great progress with this material.

This year's basketball team made one of the best records that Whitworth has seen in the past few years. Whitworth won thirteen games and lost nine. The Pirates dropped two games apiece to Lewiston Normal and the Whitman Missionaries.

The entire starting line-up played excellent ball, and because of the lack of suitable material, Coach Gavin was forced to play with few substitutions.

It is hard to pick the stars from this team. Don Steele, Vince Gregg, Paul Merkel, Wes Scott, and Don McInturff all played very good basketball.

Wes Scott is the only player who will not be back next year. Whitworth should be able to look forward to great things in their new gym.

"W" Club

A small, but active group, the "W" Club, began early in the year to function. In keeping with the school tradition, the group had charge of the freshman initiation and the Frosh-Soph fight. The highlight of the Fall semester was the annual "W" Club carnival.

During the spring of the year the members of the club sponsored the men's conference with The Rev. Kerns and Dr. Schlauch as speakers. After the football and basketball awards were made, fourteen men were eligible for club membership. The closing event of the year was the "W" Club picnic in which the new members took part.

The officers of the organization for the past year were: president, Wesley Scott; vice-president, Donald McInturff; secretary, Bruce McCullough; treasurer, Beverly Burnett; and adviser, Professor B. C. Neustel.

Women's Athletics

More activities have been offered in the field of women's sports this year than in any previous year. The girls tried their hand at marksmanship in the fall, using the bullseye as a target.

Volleyball gained in popularity as the weather grew colder and indoor sports became the vogue. After Christmas basketball provided plenty of excitement and exercise. Tumbling was also practiced, and with the arrival of the Junior College girls, badminton received a new impetus.

In the spring the young women's fancy turned to thoughts of golf and again archery.

The generous offer of Al. Carlson to give a tennis trophy to the best woman tennis player on the campus sent the girls scurrying for their rackets. The new tennis courts also had something to do with this sudden interest.

With Kay Sanborn at the helm, the aim of the women's athletic department has been achieved.

W. A. A.

First row: Dugan, Gardner, Bourland, M. Klein, Kitt, Warren. Second row: M. Ruby, Blindauer, Rosenbaum, Sanborn, Mrs. Carrel, Reynolds, Lobdell. Third row: F. Johnson, Joss, Bishop, Wall, R. Baldwin, Bunkelman, Schell, Bovee, Holder, Hodge.

The Women's Athletic Association has completed a successful year, providing a varied program of sports for the women of Whitworth. W. A. A. points were earned through participation in hiking, volleyball, basketball, softball, archery, tennis, golf, and badminton.

Early in the first semester the members of this organization enjoyed a Gypsy Feed at their cabin on the Little Spokane River. In March twelve new members were initiated into W. A. A. after each had earned one hundred points. This group and the Pirettes were cohostesses at a Women's Mixer for the Junior College and Whitworth women. The closing social event for the year was the April Frolic held at Orpha Lodge.

Five members of this group were presented with awards at the All-Awards Banquet: Mary Elaine Dugan and Virginia Lee Nance, letter sweaters; and Ruth Huntley, Florence Maurite Johnson, and Elinor Schell, letters.

W. A. A. officers for the year 1941-42 included: president, Mary Elaine Dugan; vice-president, Eleanor Hook; secretary, Marion Wall; treasurer, Ruth Baldwin; and adviser, Mrs. Carrel.

Acknowledgments

To show my grateful appreciation to the many people who have given so generously of their time and talent to make this Natsihi possible, I wish to extend my sincere thanks.

Philippians 2: 15

That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world.
