ASWC Officers: David Crossley, Arnie Stueckle, Gordon Sieler, Lois Ostenson, Fred Bronkema.

A. S. W. C.

Stepping up the ladder from last year's vice president spot to this year's chief executive, is Dave Crossley, senior from Seattle. Characterizing our "prexy" are all the necessary qualifications for efficient leadership plus that "extra" which made Dave a favorite on campus. An English major, he has efficiently and intelligently led the student body to the end of another successful year.

As vice president, Gordon Sieler not only had to be ready to step into the president's shoes if he was needed, but he had charge of all student body social events. Because of his outstanding ability, Whitworth has had an exceptional social year.

With pencil and notebook in hand Lois Ostenson was always ready with her much needed services. As secretary to the ASWC she proved a valuable and capable member of the executive council. Lois, who is a Christian Education major, journeyed from Iowa to give Whitworth her capable leadership.

Watching over the financial matters of the student body this year was Arnie Stueckle, senior education major from LaCrosse. Taking over the commons finances this year, Arnie proved to be a guide not only in money matters but in administration problems.

Fifth man on the executive council this year was Fred Bronkema. Fred, a junior literature major from Kirkland, did an able job of reigning over all student body elections.

Traffic Court

With an increased student body driving more cars than before, the Traffic Court was kept busy with traffic regulations and violators. Members are Bill Vander Stoep, Dave Gallaher, Jack Thiessen, Ken Rasmussen.

Better Government

Approving new constitutions and checking on old ones was the main occupation of this committee. Surrounding Darrell Syferd are Judy Henry, Mike Anderson, Bob Gray and other members of the committee.

Student Council

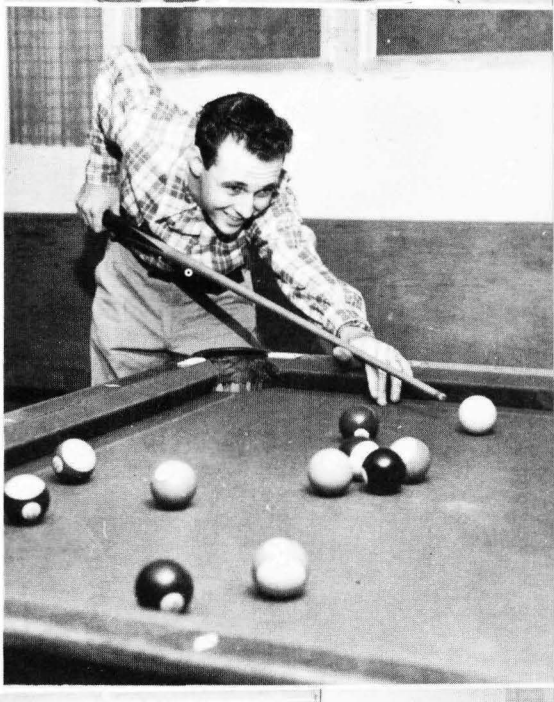
"Voice of the students" is the function of this body of student leaders. Here the college as a whole had a chance to participate in student government. Talking here with prexy Dave Crossley are Jim Minard, Connie Jo Hilt, Ruth Handy, Denny Bradner, Darrel Syferd, Bob Bradner, Arlene Carr, Shirley Guilford, Lois Ostenson, and Arnie Stueckle, all members of the council.

Hub

Studio "A" was the main project of the Hub committee this year. Working hard were Shirley Guilford, chairman; Ruth Handy, Spencer Marsh, Arlin Rhoads, and Ann Woodruff.

Game Room

Bob Patten took over as game room host this year. Engaging actively in the room, it proved more play than work.

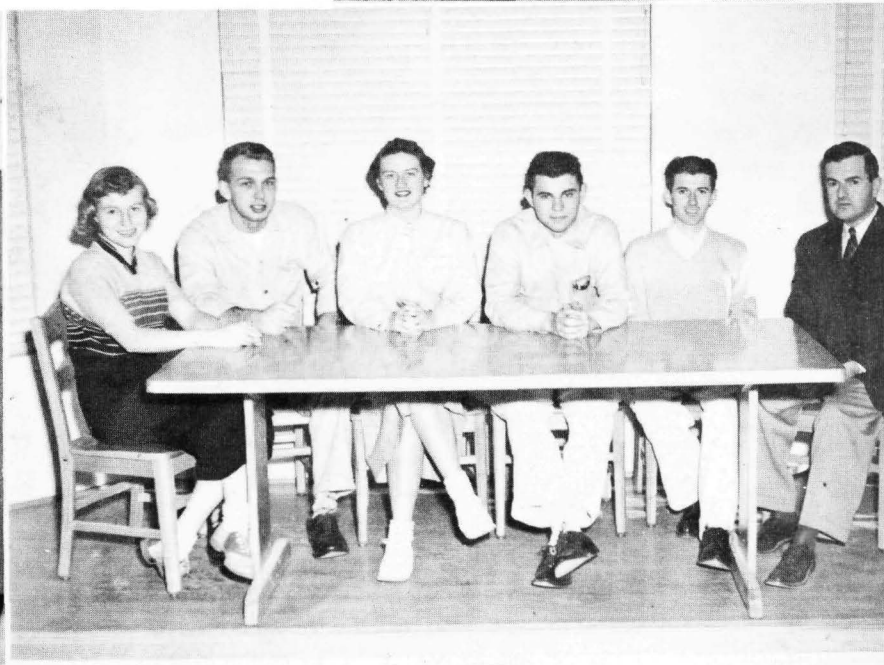


Campus Chest

Sponsored again by the Cosmopolitan, this drive for funds took on an international atmosphere. One part of this year's donations went to spread Christian literature in foreign lands. Heading the committee were: Jim Wainaina, Young Ahn and Prapasri Boonsirithum.

Publication Council

Approving the policies of campus publications is the main job of this council. Serving this year were: Mary Ellen Bollinger, Ron Zirkle, Joanne Mazna, Don Dixon, Ken Degerness, Mr. A. O. Gray, advisor.



Rally

All sport rallys were channeled through this active group. Seated around Chairman Virginia Hanley are Wendy Johnson, Donna Stirm, Marilyn Daniels, Stan Mumford, Virginia Mallet, and Judy Henry.

Half-Time

Any special half-time activities at football and basketball games were scheduled through this committee. Heading this group are Virginia Willis and Jim Shepherd.

Commons

With the commons operated entirely this year by the students, this committee had a big job. Members are Kay Knuckles, Gordon Sieler, Virginia Willis, Leon Arksey, and Arnie Stueckle.

Campus Beautification

Keeping our campus, "among the pines," beautiful was this committee's job. Members are Ben Dover, Lael McCrea, and Nancy Weber.

Calendar

Keeping the social activities straightened out and planning social activities for as often as possible topped the list of the calendar committees' duties.

Committee: Gorden Sieler, Bill Grant, Miss Baldwin, Mr. Waltz, Foyann Leach, Francis West, Miss Evans.

High School Conference

This committee planned the day at Whitworth in which student leaders from many surrounding high schools visited the campus.

Committee: Standing, Bill Snodgrass, Dick Myers. Seated, Joann Barker, Lorraine Rosenkranz, Mary Morgan.

Music Council

Choosing the artists and making arrangements for the Whitworth Concert Series, arranging for the orchestra concert in the winter and choir concert in the spring have been the chief duties of the Music Council.

Committee: Elaine Widmer, Bette Ainley, Mr. Martin, Bill Rusk.

President's Secretary: Lily Anderson.

Business Office: Rosie Kissler, Viola Lamberton, Mrs. Riegel, Miss Flemming.

Secretaries: Ann Harold, Shirley Gallaher, Billie Jean Thiessen, Carolyn Fisher.

Switchboard: Dorothy Goss, Lorraine Rosenkranz, Joyce Rowen.

Business Staff

Switchboard: Dorothy Goss, Lorraine Rosekranz, Joyce Rowen.

Registration Office: Mrs. Emery, Dixie Harder, Miss Baldwin.

Mimeograph: Margaret Wilson, Miss White.

CLASSES

CLASS OF '55

This year's seniors were on the ball right from the start with a Western party during Orientation week. Next came the all school barbecue, which though rained out, was still a success when held in the gym. This event was complete with talent imported from the air force base.

Their next doings came in October when they got together for a spaghetti feed (seniors only) in the commons. This proved so successful that they had another get together after the Christmas holidays.

Speaking of Christmas, the seniors landed the job of hanging the greens in the Graves gymnasium. Following this, when February rolled around, it was the seniors again with the traditional Sadie Hawkins Day banquet straight from Dog Patch.

Suddenly it's spring. The seniors, in preparation to leaving Whitworth for good, retreated for a weekend of fun and reminiscence of four years of college life. With the last week, there was the faculty, senior banquet and with the last Sunday of their college career saw baccalaureate come and go. Then the climax of college that "day of daze"—COMMENCEMENT—and the end of college days for the class of '55.

Officers: Carolyn Kolden, vice-president; Maurice Legare, president; Margaret Toevs, secretary; Don Dixon, treasurer; Larry Strickland, social chairman.

Who's Who

Fourteen seniors were chosen this year to represent Whitworth College in the national publication, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. They were selected by a committee composed of faculty and students.

Appointments for this honor were made on the basis of the person's scholastic record, activities, leadership, citizenship, and promise of future value to society.

CLASS OF '56

Efficiency in organization characterized the junior class this year. Early in the fall several standing committees were elected to handle the events of the year. These included publicity, Dick Myers; food, Francis West; and entertainment, Ann Woodruff and Bill Hughey.

Social activities for the year started with a breakfast, followed by a junior class sponsored all-school skating party.

Filled with Christmas spirit the class of '56 filled six gift boxes for needy families. They presented the boxes to the families after caroling them.

Later in the year the juniors sponsored an after-game party. Climax of the year came in the late spring when the class retreat was held.

All these activities were carried on under the guiding hand of James Carlsen, class advisor.

CLASS OF '57

Freshman initiation was this year's sophomores big contribution to the college. It was the best planned and most extensive initiation in a good many years, if not the best all the way around. There was a man haters day, woman haters day, several costume days, plus the traditional Kangaroo Court.

When it comes to red-blooded people, the sophomores were the ones to prove that they had plenty of it when they gave the most blood in the school's blood drive.

As "Green Hangers" the sophs turned the dining hall into a ski lodge, complete with skis, skiers, and snow.

With Leonard Martin as advisor this proved a good year for the class of '57.

CLASS OF '58

Class Officers: Sylvia Casberg, secretary; Charlie Brown, president; Marcia Johnson, treasurer; Frank Bates, vice-president.

This year the freshman class started off in high spirits with a project of putting signs around the Spokane area, advertising Whitworth College.

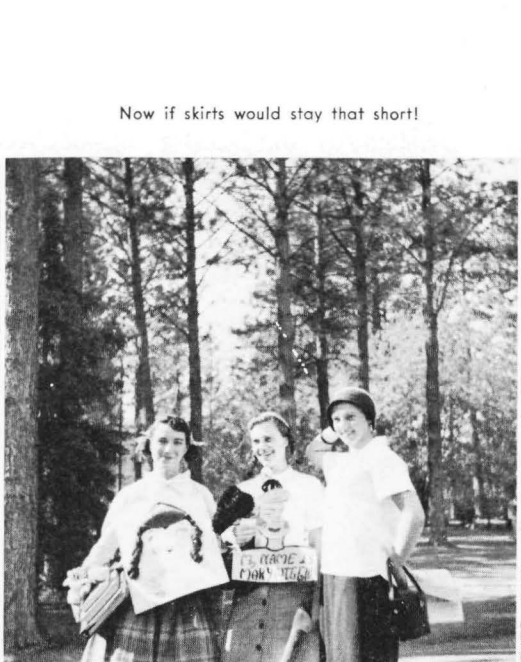
The freshmen were beginning to really feel big and important when the fateful Initiation Week began. It was not long before the freshmen were once again lowly and humble. Kangaroo Court on Friday proved to be an exciting and interesting event.

However, the freshmen were not daunted for long and when Homecoming rolled around they had once again come into power. This strength in unity was proved when the upperclassmen failed to light the bonfire ahead of schedule.

Hanging of the Greens was a festive time of year during which the freshmen won first prize when they decorated the library carrying out the theme, "T'was the Night Before Christmas." ---- ---- ------

We shoulda joined the army.

Now if skirts would stay that short!



Even frosh must eat.

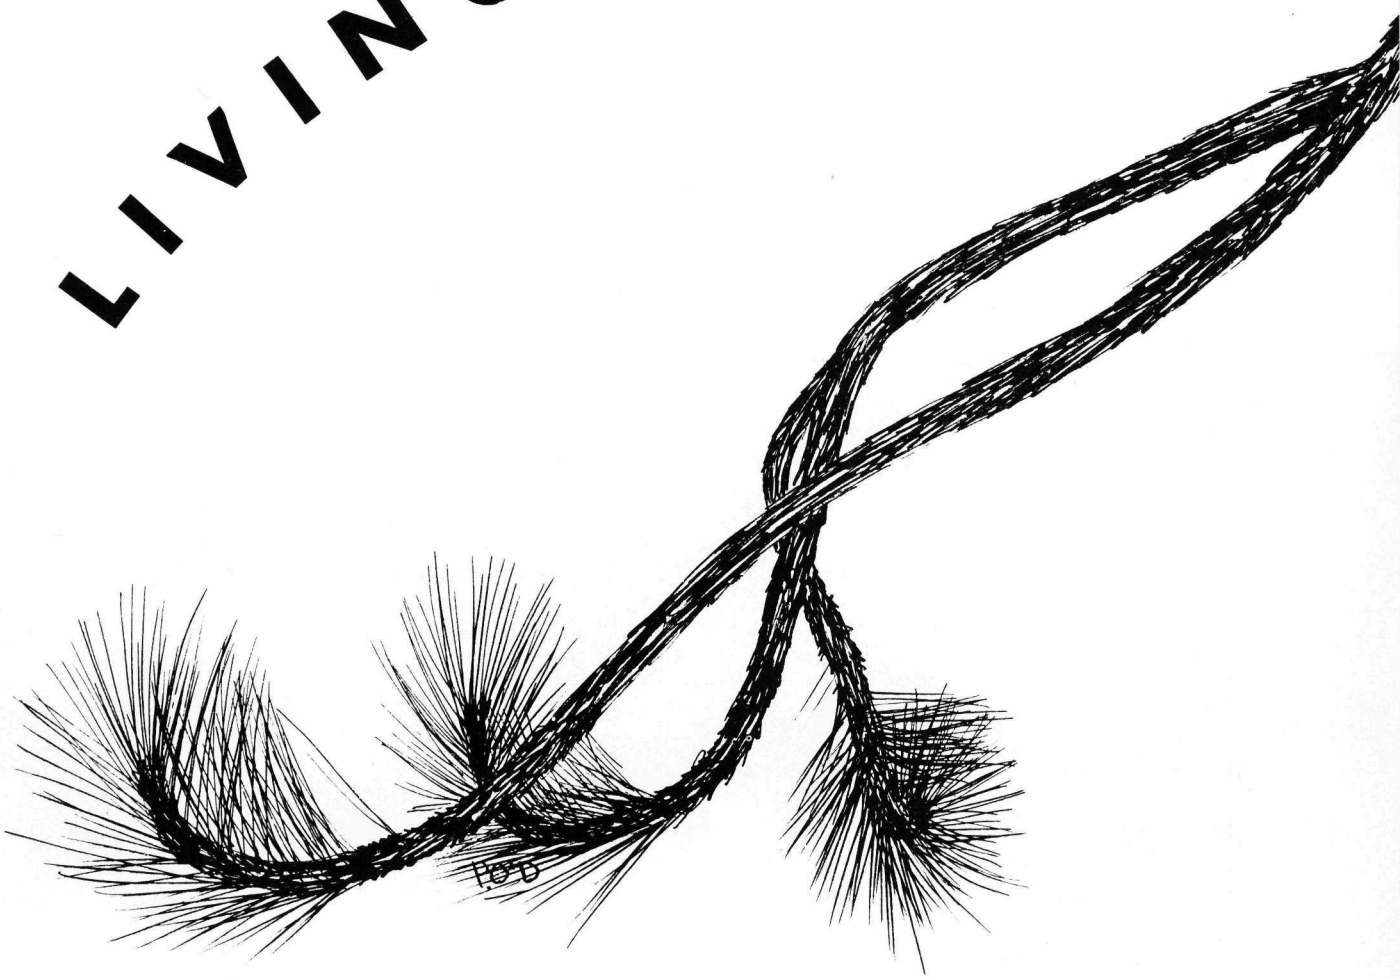
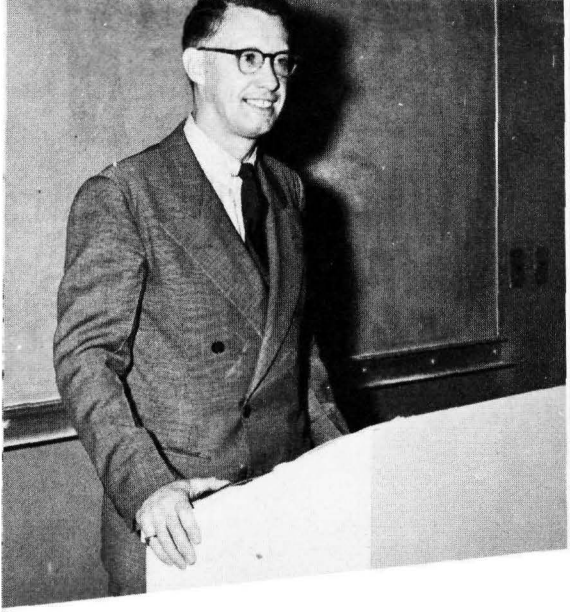
LIVING GROUPS





AKX Advisor: Dr. R. Fenton Duvall.

AKX

Town clubbers had a full schedule this year. Heading their list of activities were the weekly prayer meetings in the Edinger chapel.

Starting early in the fall with a barbecue, AKX held various other social functions. Again they sponsored the all school Mardi Gras and served the beefsteak breakfast on Campus day.

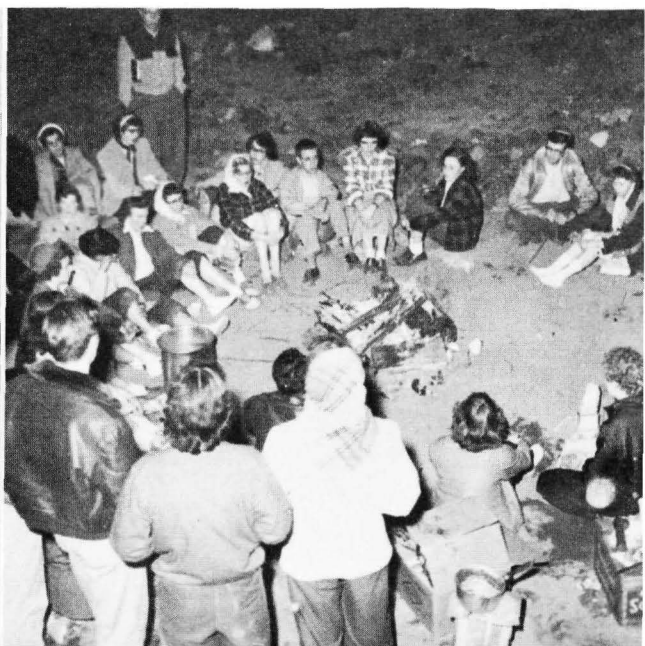
"In my heart there rings a melody."



Officers: Audrey Olson, president; Louise Nakagawa, vice-president; Marvel Hayes, secretary; Marilyn Greve, treasurer.

LETTERMAN LANNING

Letterman Lanning is the home of seventy Whitworth students, namely, the nurses. The girls led a busy life traveling to and from campus. Chapel one night a week and parties once a month occupied their evenings. Hanging of the Greens found them serving food to the tired, cold workers. Rounding out their social calendar were the functions of AKX.

Could this be Miss Funk?

BALLARD

Housemother: Mrs. Lillian McEachran.

Ballard Hall has had a busy but fun-filled year with their new housemother, Mrs. McEachran (affectionately known as Mrs. Mac to everyone on campus).

The women began the fall semester by completely redecorating the interior of Ballard themselves. Bi-weekly prayer meetings were held, and also each of the floors took a turn at giving parties for the other women.

A new tradition that proved successful was the exchange firesides with various men's groups. Climaxing the social calendar was the Western party held at the Five Mile Grange hall.

Officers, seated: Connie Jo Hilt, student council; Doris Burke, president. Standing: Madelyn Gammill, assistant housemother; Lorraine Rosenkranz, treasurer; Carolyn Kolden, social chairman; Rosie Kissler, secretary; Foyann Leach, publicity chairman; Mary Morgan, vespers.

"Two heads are better than one" can be applied to the Ball and Chain families. Social functions such as potluck dinners were held for the purpose of fun, fellowship—and food.

Wives' Club held an important place in Ball and Chain lane with a meeting once a month. Through cake sales, the "Little Women" provided for a needy family they adopted and also brought improvements such as swings and playground equipment for the children.

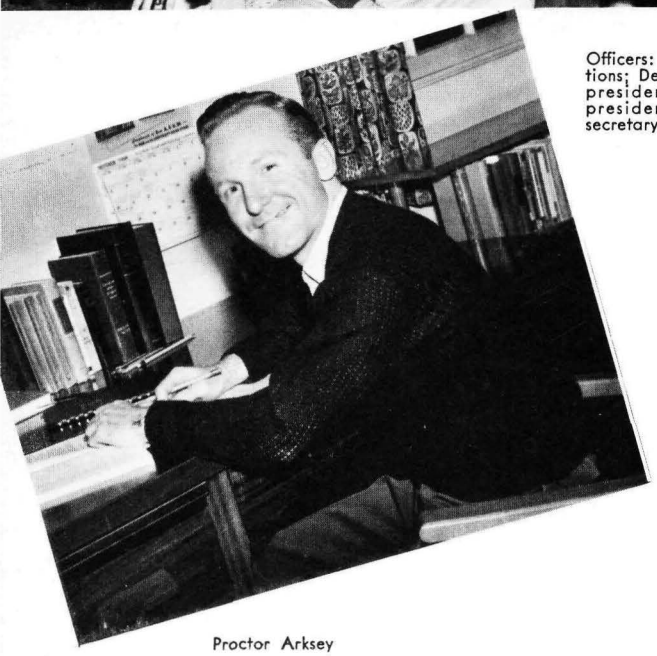
"These Freshmen get smaller every year."

Wives' Club Officers: Dinah Widmer, secretary-treasurer; Arlene Patten, Student council representative; Beverly Perrin, president; Virginia Paradis, vice-president.

BALL and CHAIN

Officers: Bill Grier, devotions; Denny Bradner, vice-president; Bob Bradner, president; Paul McCaw, secretary-treasurer.

"Gossip Time": Denny Bradner, Gordon Sieler, Nick Chenoweth.



Proctor Arksey

GOODSELL

Housing the celebreties this year was Goodsell hall, as it claimed the prexy and vice-president of the student body and many lettermen among its residents. Again, they rated high in sports prowess by excelling at all intramural sports. Social engagements included an annual formal banquet and a dinner at the Chinese Gardens.

LANCASTER

Lancaster is the smallest dorm on the campus but what it lacks in number, it makes up in enthusiasm. With Leon Arksey as their dorm dad, group spirit was at a premium. Highlighting their social activities this year was a wiener roast up on lofty Mt. Spokane in the early fall.

"What is Plato's first name?" Karl Ostheller, Rodney Gaines, Paul Smith, Bill Moss.

McMILLAN

From top notch volleyball players to dignified ladies, the McMillan girls filled the bill this year as they took the championship in volleyball at the Women's Conference tournament, and held a lavish dinner date party at the Davenport Hotel the following month.

Other activities included the making of a homecoming float, Sunday evening firesides, and other inter-dorm events.

House Mother: Miss Dorothy Adams

Dorm Officers—Standing: Claudia Westland, historian; Joan Bickerstaff, vesper representative; Jeanette Richardson, secretary-treasurer; Francis West, devotional chairman. Seated: Ruth Handy, student council; Helen Greiner, assistant house mother; Lorna Snodgrass, president; Ann Carpenter, assistant house mother; Priscella Buchin, Sefelo.

"So that's who she asked."

NASON

"Pogo is our man!" cried the Nason men as they walked off with the highest dorm decoration honors for homecoming this year, with the theme based on their favorite comic strip character.

The dorm held a successful date dorm party in December and another in the spring.

Also they placed second in intramural football this year.

Officers: Truit Rogers, chaplain; Dave Turner, vice-president; Bob Steffer, secretary-treasurer
Don Fergeson, president

Housemother: Mrs. Bessie Ekelmans

Bull Session: Al Villesvik, Bob Bovee, Young Ahn, Eddie Adams

EAST WARREN

Officers, back row: Roberta Dayton, scrapbook; Kay Young, student council; Lynn Alexander, vespers; Gloria Werner, devotions; Paula Haug, scrapbook. Front row: Ann Christiansen, vice-president, treasurer; Janet Hall, secretary; Mary Rice, president; Irene Javis, assistant housemother; Joyce Giedt, Sefelo representative.

East Warren started their social life with a most successful Hawaiian Luau and ended the year with their annual outing in May. As well as being the residence of the 1954 Homecoming Queen, Joyce Geidt, the dorm participated in intramurals, Sefelo, open dorm, Hanging of the Greens, and the C. E. Easter Program.

The unity and fellowship of the dorm is due in part to the efforts of Miss Mae Whitten, the housemother, who welcomes each girl with a tea party in the fall.

Housemother: Miss Mae Whitten.

Hawaiian Luau: Stan Mumford, Ruth Herman, Frank Bates, Sally Stewart, Fred Glandon, Roberta Dayton.

Housemother: Mrs. Ina Henefer

"Hay Fever" was the theme for West Warren's fall dorm party. The girls and their dates went country style for an evening of fun. The Warrenites also entertained the men's dorms at Sunday evening firesides. Other dorm activities included participation in all inter-dorm projects and sponsorship of a C.E. program. With the theme "Cotton Picking," they captured second prize with their Homecoming decorations.

WEST WARREN

Officers: Eugenia Kim, bulletin board; Anne Wright, assistant housemother; Vera Butler, social; Janie Ko, president; Jackie Johnson, devotional; Barbara Hughes, vice-president, secretary; Jo Orr, treasurer; Jan Williams, vespers; Shirley Guilford, student council

"Relaxation Time"

WASHINGTON

Proctor: Bill Rusk

A common and familiar trademark of Washington Hall this year was a colorful, noisy Model A, which was frequently used as a source of advertising for the dorm.

Residents of the dorm had a good year with Walt Spangenberg as president. They participated in intramural sports and also held two date dorm parties during the year.

"The Rattle A"

Officers: Don Dixon, social chairman; Ron Singley, chaplain; Ron Kinley, president; Tom Roth, treasurer; Fred Bronkema, student council; Bill Vanderstcep, vice-president; Dewey Wallace, secretary.

Newman Lake was the setting for the first dorm party of the year given by Westminster Hall. They followed this with numerous stag parties and dorm meetings "with refreshments." Dorm unity was shown when their candidate, Joyce Giedt, was crowned Homecoming Queen. With Bill Burd as the proctor, they participated in intramural competition, all inter-dorm events and sponsored the Homecoming Pep Rally.

WESTMINSTER

Proctors: Bill Burd and John Spalek.

"Tea For Three"

WHITWORTH

Dorm Officers: Archie McPhail, athletic director; Darrell Syferd, student council representative; Mike Anderson, president; Vern Van Der Werff, secretary-treasurer; Dick Myers, vice-president.

Unusually enthusiastic this year were the Whitworth Hall men. To start the year off with a "bang," the boys picked a cold October evening, grabbed a date, and hopped on a hay wagon. The following month, the men had a bowling party and spaghetti feed. In the spring they held another party. The dorm was also active in intramural sports this year.

Contributing to the successful dorm year were the new proctors, Jack and Billie Jean Thiessen.

Proctors: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thiessen.

We're off on a hay ride.

FINE ARTS

FINE ARTS

ART DEPARTMENT

Making landscapes come to life

Making things of beauty and use might well be said of the Whitworth art department. Under the guidance of Mr. John Koehler and Mr. Russell Larson the art students turn out art work not only superb in beauty but useful.

During commencement activities they have an opportunity to display their work in the library.

On the practical side, art is put to work doing publicity for the college. All of the posters for the Whitworth Concert Series, Studio "A," as well as for many other occasions are channeled through this department.

An art extension school sponsored by the college is located in downtown Spokane.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

"California Here We Come" was the theme song of the A Cappella Choir this year as they took a three-week tour south April 10 to May 1.

Under the direction of Prof. Wilbur L. Anders the choir of 47 members started their tour on Easter with a concert at Richland. From there they performed at Bend and Klamath Falls, Oregon and on to California. Chico, Stockton, Fresno, Arcadia, Los Angeles, Pasadena, Laguna Beach, San Diego, Palm Springs, Santa Monica, San Jose, Menlo Park, Oakland, Berkeley, Hayward, Walnut Creek and Red Bluff were cities hosting the choir.

Returning north Medford, Salem, and Portland, Oregon; and Yakima were sung in before the A Cappella's final concert May 7 in Spokane.

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S CHORUSES

ORCHESTRA

This year, under the direction of Prof. James Carlsen, the Whitworth orchestra went on a tour through the middle part of the state. Beside this tour they also played in neighboring vicinities during the school year and for college functions.

On the music programme of the orchestra this year was Beethoven's Prometheus Overture, Love Music from "Boris Godunow" by Moussorgsky, Rebikov's Dance of the Clowns from "Yolka," Petite Suite De Concert by Coleridge-Taylor and Shostakovich's Polka from "Age of Gold."

BRASS CHOIR

Again this ensemble played an important part in the music of Whitworth College. Touring with the orchestra they made a contribution to the whole music picture of the college. In their concerts this year they played two numbers by Pezel, Sonata No. 2 and "Three Pieces for Brass." Completing their programme was Francisque's Suite from Le Treser D'Orphee.

With the whole orchestra they toured for several days in the central part of the state. Their schedule was:

March 10 . . . . Carmichael Junior High, Richland; and Sunnyside
March 11 . . . . Grandview High School, Selah High School, and Cowiche
March 13 . . . . Wenatchee

Many students help to direct and arrange music.

Voice and organ recitals are sometimes given together.

MUSIC ACTIVITIES

Piano recitals always draw a large crowd.

Individual training has long been an important part of the musical program on campus. Along with the larger musical groups comes work in personal workmanship, helping students to gain poise, develop memories, and other important phases of music techniques. Every junior and senior in the major field of music gives recitals as part of their graduation requirements. Many of the teachers give small scale recitals among their pupils at the end of each semester giving students a chance to further develop their skills and knowledge. A voice final is given to each student of the voice department measuring their work during that semester. All in all the music department makes an effort to turn out musicians of the highest quality.

CONCERT SERIES

Prof. Wilbur Anders directed the A Cappella Choir Concert on May 7.

Prof. James F. Carlsen made his debut with the Whitworth orchestra on March 5.

Commencing Whitworth's Concert Series this fall was James de la Fuente, Spokane's brilliant violinist. Held in the Commandery Room of the Masonic Temple, where all the Whitworth concerts were presented, this first concert was heard October 23. Mr. de la Fuente's performance was outstanding as he played on his "Montagnana" violin.

March 5 saw the debut of Prof. James F. Carlsen as conductor of the Whitworth orchestra. Besides the whole orchestra numbers, the string orchestra and brass choir performed.

Upon their return from a three-week tour the A Cappella Choir closed the series with a concert on May 7. Under the direction of Prof. Wilbur Anders, the 47-voice choir gave their usual dynamic performance.

James de la Fuente commenced the series with a violin programme, October 23.

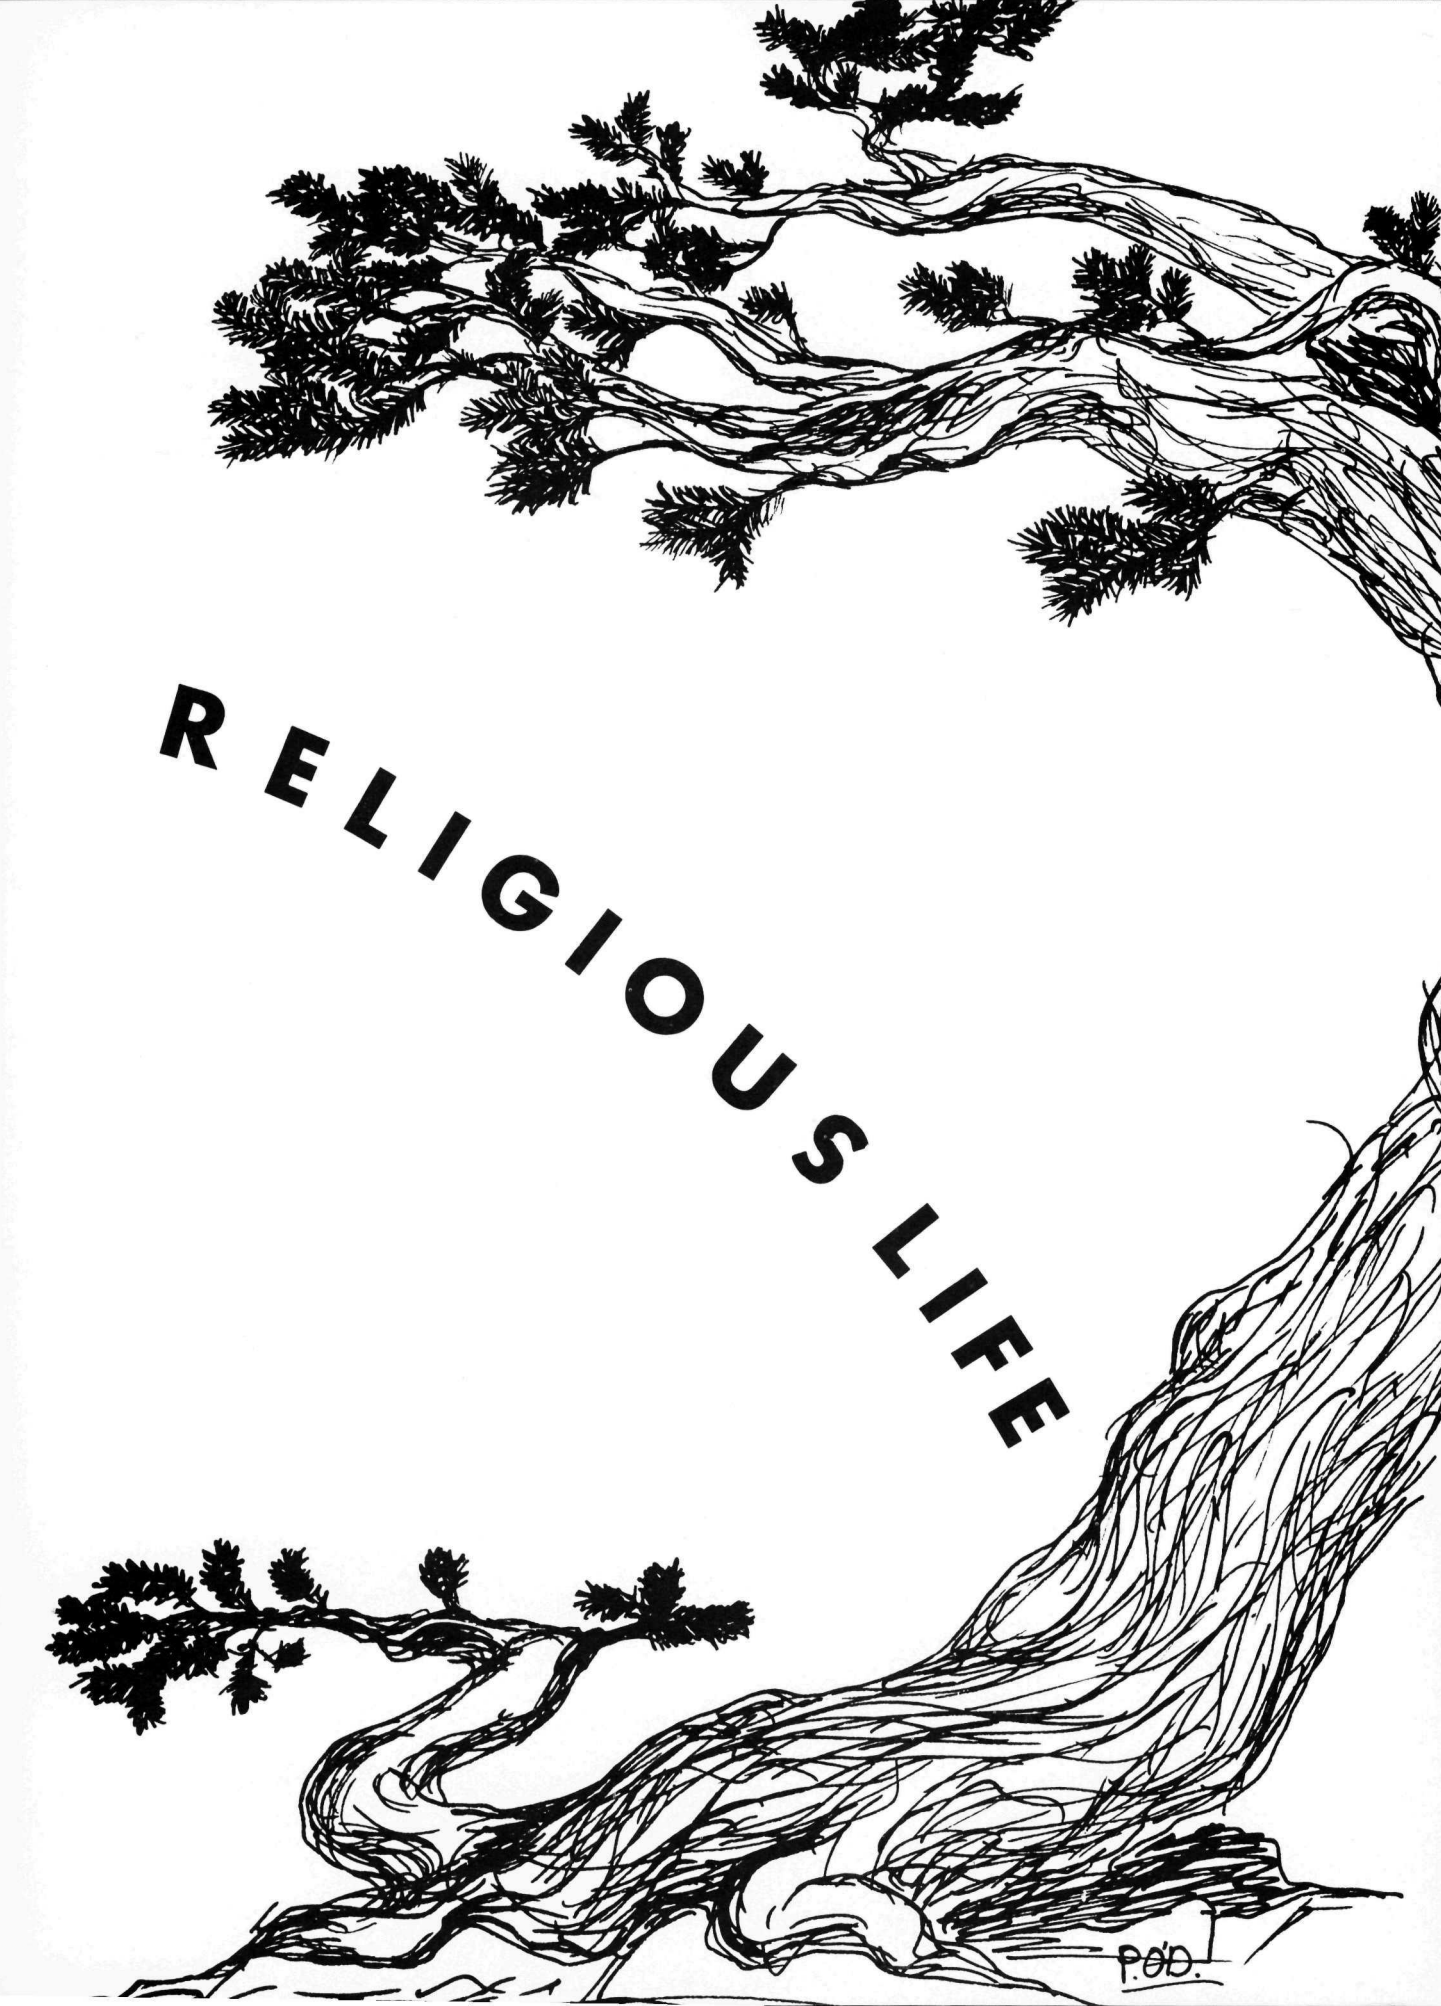
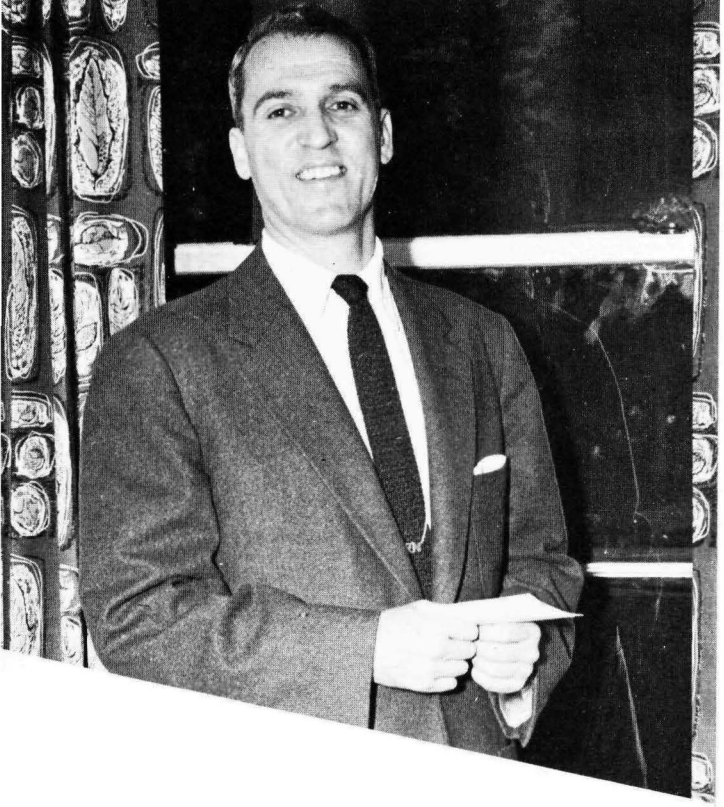
TIFFANY CHAPEL



RELIGIOUS LIFE
P.ÓD.



"Christ and my Life"

Dr. Robert B. Munger

"Oh, Master, Let Me Walk With Thee" . . . Using this beautiful old anthem as the conference hymn, Spiritual Emphasis week started. With Dr. Robert B. Munger as speaker, meetings were held twice daily, November 14 through 21.

"Christ and My Life" was the theme carried out in each service with the morning chapel carrying the underlying theme of "Basis for Christian Faith" and the evening meetings the theme of "The Christian's Place in the World."

Dr. Munger is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Berkeley, Calif. Sought after by many colleges and universities as Religious Emphasis week speaker and recently returned from a world tour, Dr. "Bob" is a very busy person. We feel fortunate to have had him; many received deeper spiritual values through his ministry.

Spiritual Emphasis Committee: Gene Powell, Mike Anderson, Della Weyrick, Dr. Munger, Bill Burd.

Between messages counseling: Dr. Munger, Coy Ball, Mary Latimer.

"CHRIST OR?"

"Christ or ?" "Love or hate?" These searching questions were asked of everyone by Dr. Samuel Moffett, the Spiritual Advance Days speaker, March 6 to 9.

Though Dr. Moffett was born of missionary parents in Korea, he felt that the Lord wanted him in China where the need was greater. When the communists gained control in 1948 he placed under house arrest. Later released he was allowed to continue his work until 1951 when he communists granted him permission to leave the country.

After returning to America Dr. Moffett became Secretary to the Board of Foreign Missions and is now awaiting orders to return to Korea.

Spiritual Advance Speaker:
Dr. Samuel Moffett

"In Christ There Is No East Or West"

Christian Activity Council

Coordinating campus Christian activities is the Christian Activities Council. Conducting morning prayer meetings and planning Spiritual Emphasis Week and Spiritual Advance Days are its main projects.

Mission Fellowship

This organization is helpful to all students interested in missionary work. At their weekly Sunday morning meetings this group discuss many different missionary stations.

Gospel Crusaders

Suppling churches with gospel teams is the chief aim of this group. Every Sunday two or three teams go out to do preaching and pulpit assistance work.

Officers: Gene Powell, 1st semester director; Darryl Syford, 2nd semester director; Jan Young, assistant director; Vern Van Der Werff, treasurer; Dorothy Rogers, secretary.

Christian Endeavor

One of the most active groups on the campus is Christian Endeavor. With meetings held every Wednesday night the group also found time for several other events. Highlighting the year's program was a banquet held in January.

Westminster Fellowship

Westminster Fellowship, Presbyterian young people's group, has presented interesting and varied programs throughout the year based on Christian experiences of students and prominent men and women of our community.

W. F. Officers: Charlie Brown, faith; Elizabeth Williams, social; Al Villesvik, vice-moderator; Dave Reed, moderator; Jim Bell, program; Margaret Wilson, secretary-treasurer; Dr. Rodgers, advisor.

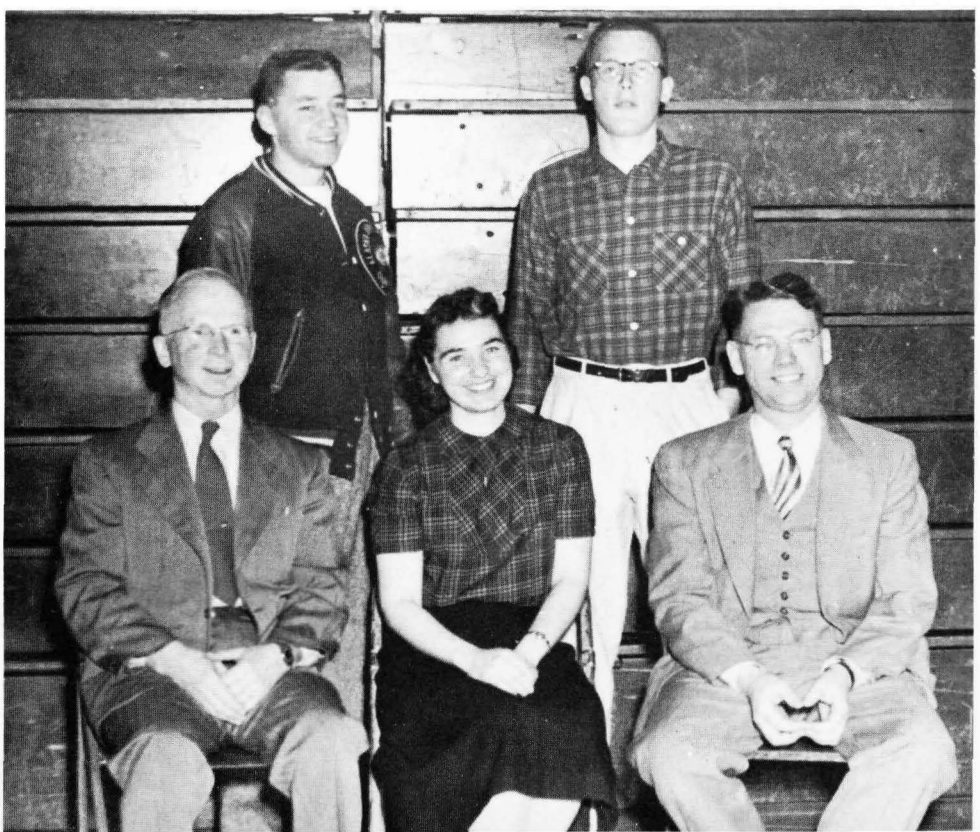
Planning the Sunday evening programs at Tiffany Chapel is the job of the Vespers committee. Bringing in speakers from all parts of the country keeps this committee busy.

Members: Irene Jarvis, Eugenia Kim, Dewey Wallace, Joanne Bickerstaff, Chuck Harris, Dr. Rodgers, Miss Smith, Margaret Wilson.

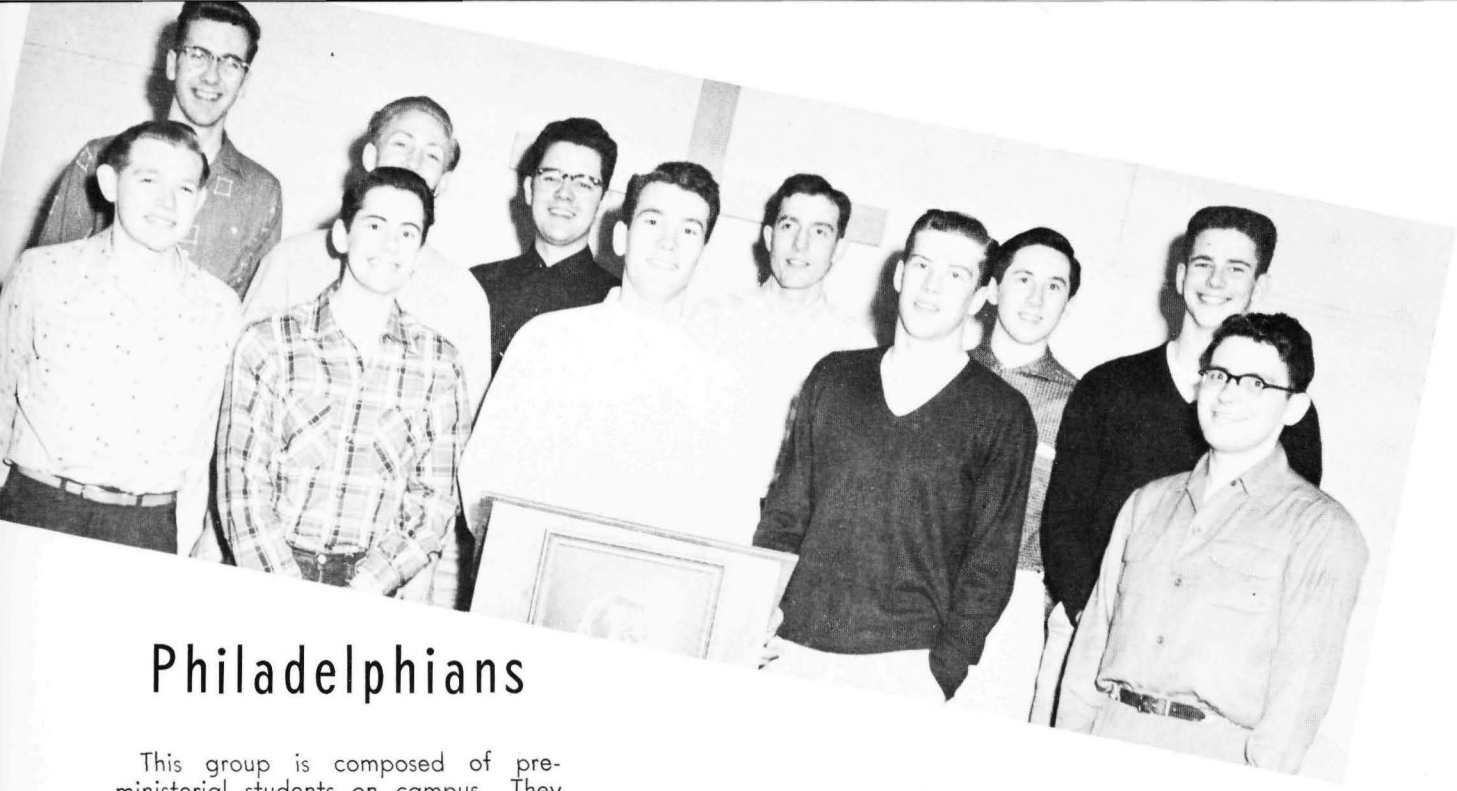
Vesper Committee

Chapel Committee

Every week—three times a week—this committee is responsible for filling the chapel program of the college. Besides the speaker, the committee must bring in special music and assistants to help in the worship service.



Members, standing: Bill Rusk, Dick Myers. Seated: Dr. Schlauch, Marleta Henderson, Dr. Rodgers.



Philadelphians

This group is composed of pre-ministerial students on campus. They hear outstanding ministers from the Spokane area and discuss the problems facing their vocation.

Life Service

Life Service has endeavored to bring Whitworth women preparing for Christian work into a closer relationship to the Bible. Weekly Bible study groups and two "Advances" in the year stimulated interest in the program.

Officers, standing: Ann Carpenter, treasurer; Miss Baldwin, advisor, Helen Greiner, program; Irene Jarvis, vice-president; Miriam Pohlman, publicity; Della Weyrick, president; Dottie Bovee, social. Seated: Gloria Werner, historian; Foyann Leach, secretary.

PIRETTES

Pirettes is a service honorary for sophomore, junior, and senior women who have been chosen as members by the student council and the A.W.S executive council. The women are selected on the basis of their leadership ability, their service to the school, and their scholastic standing. This year the group was led by Helen Greiner, and advised by Lily Anderson during the absence of Miss Marion Jenkins.

NATSIHI

"It was great fun, but it was just one of those things," to quote the song, describes the sentiments of the Natsihi Staff after completion of their year-long pet project.

Under the guiding light of Editor Mary Ellen Bollinger and Observing Editor Bob Cameron, the staff slaved until at last the "Book" came to be. Bob Secrest, photographer, dedicated his time and peace of mind to all photography in the book; Pat O'Donahue contributed her talents as staff artist; while Business Manager Ken Degerness and Advertising Manager Dwight Treganowan kept the publication out of the red.

Eight section editors and various miscellaneous workers were kept hopping also, until at last the finishing touches were added and Mary Ellen gratefully stamped the last bits of material, marked "RUSH" on the copy, hoped prayerfully that the publishing company would accept it, and heaved a long delayed, but deserving sigh of relief.

Whitworthian

From dawn 'til dark, and often through 'til dawn again, Whitworthian Editor Joanne Mazna devotes her life to her All – American publication.

Assisted by a staff of 18 members, Joanne fights sleep, deadlines, and presses to bring to the students their weekly publication. Associate Editor, Jane Martin, has been an able assistant to the editor, as have Sports Editor Wayne Barnard and Assistant Editor Gary Heilsberg.

Through trials and tribulations: when the staff just has to attend those three basketball games in a row instead of writing on the paper; when it is so cold the presses freeze; or when there isn't a hint of news—the paper has always come through.

It was a long hard fight, but "Well, Mom! We did it!" sighs Editor "Maz."

Director of Athletics Jim Lounsberry

DEPARTMENT PERSONALITIES

Jim Lounsberry, Whitworth's genial Director of Athletics, is now completing his second year at the helm of the Pirate ship. Following his appointment to this position in his second year at Whitworth, his department has come up with one co-championship and one championship in football, one track championship, and one basketball championship, all during the span of two years. Graduating from not-so-distant Central Washington College of Education, he served a hitch with the University of Washington before being appointed as football coach and later track coach here.

Under the leadership of Art Smith our basketball teams have been given many shouts of approval. Coach Art has made popular practice of being everybody's friend on campus. His interest in making the basketball team the representative of the real spirit of Whitworth helps explain his popularity at Whitworth. Besides the basketball job he also coaches the baseball team.

Clyde Matters, who doubles as junior basketball coach during basketball season and tennis mentor later on in the spring, did his usual good job in developing his charges. A Whitworth graduate he returned to his Alma Mater to fill an important spot in the athletic department.

Mae MacInturff is the lady in charge of the women's physical education department. She is also sponsor of the WAA which gives the women a chance at competitive sports.

Intramurals at Whitworth this year have been under the capable direction of Paul Merkel, who has also assisted in football and basketball.

Perennial coach of the college divot-diggers is Dr. Homer H. Alder, who each spring takes time out from flower-picking and cat-cutting to tee off with the college's golf hopefuls.

Coaches:

EVERGREEN CHAMPS

Nothing less than a perfect season was Whitworth's Pirates goal for the 1954 season.

Whitworth's season opened with a non-conference game with old rival Eastern Washington and ended with the same team. Bob Ward, Wayne Buchert, Bud Pocklington, and frosh quarterback Don Price were instrumental in the 27-0 trouncing of the Savages at Richland, September 24.

Western Washington managed to drag itself into Spokane October 1, as the Whits renewed their appearance in the Spokane Stadium after several years' layoff for the Bucs' first league game. The Vikings left the field at the end of the game in much worse condition, absorbing a 33-0 licking by the Whits.

Central Washington put up a much stiffer fight than the Vikings October 8, although the Pirates finally did manage to grind out another win, 15-6.

Whitworth moved to the coast for two week-end engagements, October 15 and 22, to test the mettle of College of Puget Sound and University of British Columbia. Both fell before the Whitworth grid machine, 33-13 and 27-6, respectively.

Oregon's Linfield College invaded the campus Pine Bowl October 29, as the victory-laden Pirate ship prepared to add another prize to their growing victory heap aboard in a non-conference tilt before a large homecoming crowd. The Wildcats ended in the same cage the Whits have been packing them in the last few years, 41-13.

One long year of waiting finally paid off for the Bucs November 6, as they trampled into the ground the proud Pacific Lutheran Gladiators 38-2 to avenge for the previous year's loss to the same team in the "fog bowl" in Tacoma. This marked the first time that the Whits had been able to defeat the Lutes on the gridiron.

With a bowl bid that failed to materialize in view, the Pirates sailed into Cheney to rack up the Savages for the worst defeat of the Whitworth-Eastern Washington series and the Evergreen Championship before a rapidly disappearing Eastern homecoming crowd November 12, 55-0.

Evergreen Champs, Too

A team that came back all the way describes the Whitworth cagers who in mid-season lost their biggest star on the eve of regular conference play.

Coach Art Smith's job at the beginning of the season was to put together a new starting five, since four of last year's starters were no longer around. "We're green, awfully green," Smith said, as he packed his casaba men into cars for their trip to Montana, as they prepared to play Montana University and Western Montana for their pre-season scrimmages.

About the end of January Whitworth hit its best shooting form against College of Puget Sound, as they made sawdust of the CPS Loggers in Graves gymnasium, 97-57. The team hit 55 per cent of their field attempts, with a whole host of them coming from far outside the basket. Needless to say, the score might have soared much farther up into the stratosphere, except for sympathy on the part of Smith for his opposing coach.

Whitworth ran into a pair of determined teams a little later, losing to Pacific Lutheran as the Lutes hit an unconscious 60 per cent in their own gym; and to Eastern Washington in the last game of the regular season. When the season closed the Bucs found themselves tied with PLC for first place.

After sending the ambitious Lutes back to Tacoma in a playoff battle in the Coliseum, the Whits settled down to the task of wrestling from Gonzaga the right to go to Kansas City. Winning two out of the three games the Bucs hopped the "express" for the midwest finals.

At Kansas City Whitworth ran into a perpetual-motion quintet from Beloit, Wisconsin and finally ran out of steam to lose to the Beloit Buccaneers 88-75.

Intramurals

Intramural Director: Paul Merkel

Intramurals this year brought forth a mad scramble by all of the men's dorms to become the first possessors of the new intramural trophy, to be awarded on the basis of best all-around showing in all of the sports by a dorm.

No one dormitory appeared to be top heavy in "talent," with surprises and upsets happening in every sport which the intramural board sponsored.

Any comment on the intramural picture this year would be incomplete without mentioning the moving personality of the program, Paul Merkel, the intramurals director. His influence was felt by everyone connected with intramurals, resulting in some of the best participation in the intramural program by the men on and off campus as has been seen for some time.

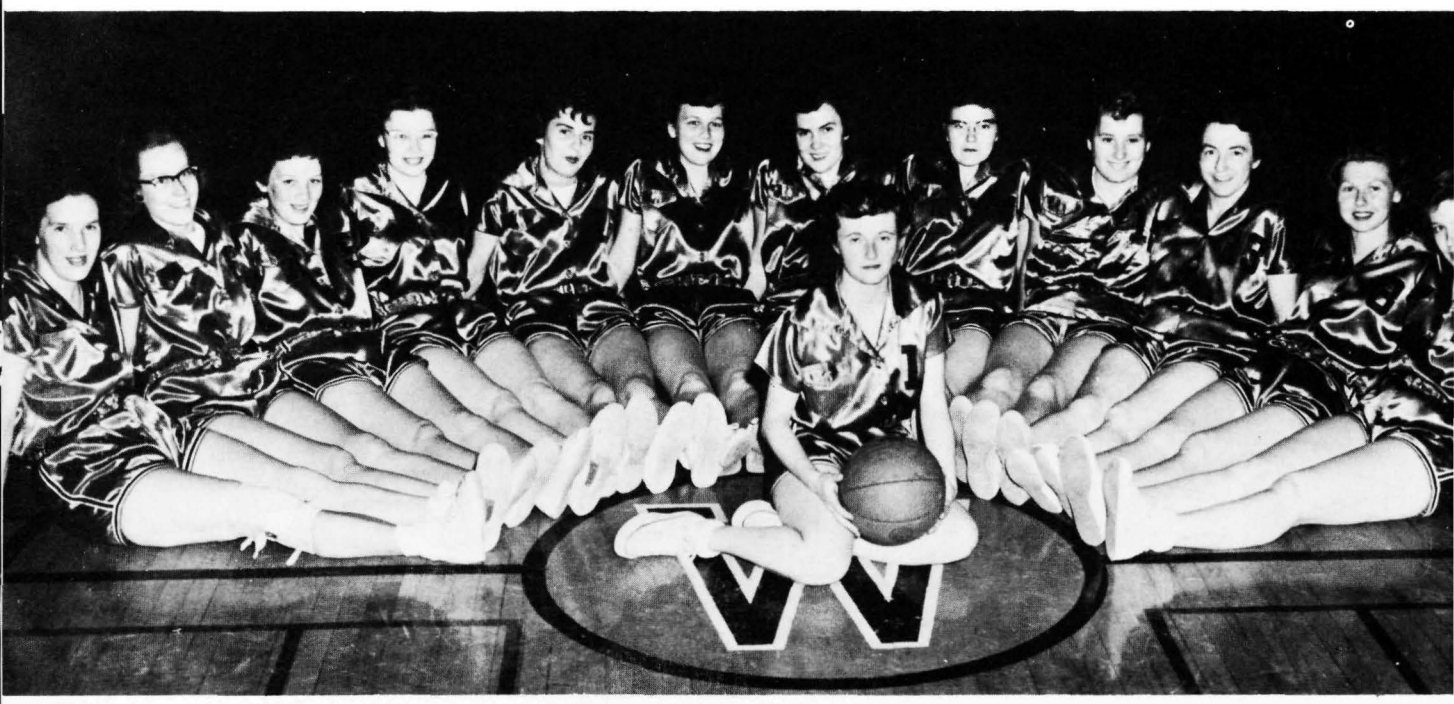
WOMEN'S VARSITY BASKETBALL

Women's P. E.: Mrs. Don McInturff

Under the leadership of Captain Helen Greiner, the Women's Varsity Basketball team, competed in the city league this year. Three of the team members were chosen to play on the All-Star team. These three, Sue Cyphers, Shirley Ginther, and Helen Greiner, helped down the famous unbeaten Yellow Cab team by a score of 33 to 27. In addition to their regularly scheduled games with Yellow Cab, Independents, Holy Names and the Y. W. C.A. they played the city team from Spangle. The women finished their rigorous schedule with a near even break of wins and loses.

Team: Mary Lee Ludtke, forward; Cathy Weber, guard; Marlene Uttke, guard; Shirley Ginther, guard; Joanne Barnes, forward; Vera Butler, forward; Betty Shaffer, forward; Judy Adley, forward; Audtey Olson guard; Rocky Hanna, forward; Helen Greiner, forward; Ruth Handy, guard; Sue Cyphers, guard.



WAA

Officers: Barbara Beeman, vice-president; Betty Shaffer, president; Barbara Hughes, secretary; Barbara Harder, treasurer; Ann Woodruff, devotions.

A gypsy feed, held September 21, was the first social event sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association. A winter breakfast in February and a spring retreat completed their well-rounded program. Beside social affairs volleyball, badminton, basketball and softball intramurals kept the women pirateers active the year round. The girls also had the opportunity of attaining their ratings for volleyball and baseball officiating.

Leading the WAA this year were Betty Shaffer, president; Barbara Beeman, vice-president; Barbara Harder, treasurer; Barbara Hughes, secretary; Ann Woodruff, devotions; Shirley Ginther, sports manager; Mary Lee Ludke, points manager; Marilyn Miller, publicity.

One of the WAA sports—Badminton.

AUTOGRAPHS

Heartfelt Thanks To:

Bob C. . . . for being errand boy so many times and never complaining. For your interest, ideas and dependability when they were needed most. Especially for your willing service when you got nothing in return. Best of luck with the "book" next year, may it be the best ever.

Bob S. . . . for your constant effort to keep up with my every wish. For your time and energy and for not "knocking my head off" when I acted boarish. May you have learned as much about photography as I have learned about editing a yearbook.

All Section Editors . . . for their help in lifting some of the burden from my shoulders . . . Jo Orr, who as usual could be depended upon . . . Sally for the way she worked and proved herself a real asset to the staff . . . Judy, who worked diligently to get her section in . . . Marie for her help . . . Jo Barker for always being there when needed most . . . Bonnie who proved cool headed and valuable in a pinch . . . Lynn for her extra time and energy ungrudgingly given. . . . Finally to Wayne Barnard for stepping into the sports section and saw that things ran smoothly.

Darlene . . . who offered her time willingly and showed such interest in the whole annual.

Aggie . . . for reporting every night even when there was nothing to do.

Doris, Jeanette and Marnene . . . for their help in indexing and typing when things got piled up.

The Business Staff . . . Ken and Dwight for your playing "taxi" so often and for meeting the deadlines so well. For being the back bone of the whole staff and for the times your cheery faces have brightened the day.

Phyllis, Barbara and Ruth . . . for being the spare hands. You have proved valuable in many a moment when things looked black.

Pat . . . that job as staff artist was "super-duper."

Above all . . . to the One who is the source of all strength, power and wisdom. This task would have been impossible except for Christ, through which all things are possible.

With best wishes to you all,

Mary Ellen
