Volume LIII
Before the beginning of years
There came to the making of man
Time, with a gift for tears;
Grief, with a glass that ran;
Pleasure, with pain for leaven;
Summer, with flowers that fell;
Remembrance fallen from heaven,

and madness risen from hell;
Strength without hands to smite;
Love that endures for a breath;
Night the shadow of light,
And life the shadow of death,
and the high Gods took in hand
Fire, and the
falling of tears,
and a measure
of sliding sand
From under the
feet of the years;
and the froth and drift of the sea;
And the dust of the laboring earth;
and the bodies of things to be
In the houses of death and of birth;
And wrought with weeping and laughter
and fashion'd with loathing
and love
With life before and after
and death beneath and above,
For a day and a night
and a morrow,
That his strength might endure
For a span
With travail and heavy sorrow,
The Holy Spirit of man.

REGISTRATION A LENGTHY PROCESS

...BUT A MUST!

Registration is not as confusing as most people believe. By simply following the crowd the typical student can get by without any problems.

Students weigh each decision carefully as the time has finally arrived to choose the right class.

The next stop, a maze of files, tables, and adding machines, provides no choice for the student. He must shell out the bucks or take an early Christmas trip home.
We began the year traditionally, by tormenting the frosh, renewing old acquaintances, and hoping that somehow this would be the Year. The Frosh were kept busy with placement tests, the president’s reception, and campus welcoming activities.

Frosh women display varied smiles as they are marched out of W. Warren to be matched up with some lucky freshman male for a dinner date.

But order is quickly restored and the troops are once again off to an exciting new experience... Saga Food.

On their way to din-din, the frosh men show their masculinity by performing the traditional “Duck Walk.”
WOMEN DISCOVER A NEW BRIDGE OVER TROUBLED WATER

Women's Conference 1970 provided a moment, a place and a people. The words, music, sports, games, fellowship and provace made Women's Conference a profound experience for all who attended.

MEN'S CONFERENCE

FOOTBALL
This was a tough first year for coach Hugh Campbell. The 2-7 record did not credit the steady improvement the Pirates made and the experience picked up by the freshmen and sophomores. Next year squad should make for a totally different '71 finish.
The new Pine Bowl has increased game attendance and spirit.
The loss of ten seniors from this year's football team will be greatly felt by next year's team. But better days are ahead for about 35 members of this year's team will return to fill the nucleus of next year's squad. The seniors whom we will miss the most are Tom Stewart, Tom Baagian, Doug Simonson, Doug Curtis, Ken Surby, Cory Ray, Mark Stedman, Chris Baumgartner, Tom Beall and Greg Gatlin.

AN UNSUCCESSFUL SEASON
Football players employ skill, while their spectators utilize concentration.
This year's Homecoming had the theme from the Broadway show, "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown." After a week of spirited campaigning, Heather Holcomb, McMillan's candidate was crowned during the traditional Homecoming Convocation. Other nominees were, Karen Hayfield, Kathy Hurst, Ann Kough, and Jocelyn Voss. The weekend was full of action with the big game climaxed by the dance Saturday night as lovely ladies and handsome gentlemen joined Charlie Brown and his pals for a swinging time.

The Pep Band, spirited cheerleaders Kathy Hurst, Stephanie Dang, Jocelyn Voss, Lynne Johnson, and Michelle Baugh kept Pirate spirits from ever falling low.
PIRATES HAVE SPIRIT!

This year's cheerleaders and engineers got the opportunity to root on home territory. With the opening of the Pine Bowl, there has been an improvement in game attendance and school spirit.

Lynn Johnson leads Pirate fans in a rousing cheer.
On Saturday, November 7th the Whitworth campus was the site of the 1970 Evergreen Conference Cross Country meet. The teams that competed were: Central Washington State College, Eastern Oregon College, Whitworth, Western Washington State College, and Oregon College of Education. Bob Isitt was the second place finisher with a time of 24:47. Iain Fisher also placed in the top ten as he ran the course in a time of 25:23 for eighth position. Though Central won the meet by placing three of their runners in the top ten, Whitworth was not far behind for two of her runners came in the top ten of the listing, placing us fifth in the meet.

Girls' Intramural sports were new for Whitworth women this fall. The popularity of powder puff football, the spirit of dorm competition, and the energy expelled, show that the women of Whitworth do desire a chance for athletic participation.
Under the direction of Albert Gunderson, "Hadrian the 7th" was performed November 20, 21, and 22nd. Lead actor David Johnstone plays Frederick William Rolfe. Other members of the cast included: Tyrnne Ford in the role of Mrs. Crowe, Russ Edwards as Bishop Talacryn, Doug MacIntyre as Cardinal-Archbishop Courtleigh, Anna Stedman as Agness, and Bruce Clizbe as Jeremiah Sant.

Tolo Week was a week full of activity for Whitworth women that provided much pleasure on the part of Whitworth men. Activities besides the traditional Heart Brother Dance were, a canned food scavenger hunt (for charity), and a pizza and coke date after the Saturday night movie. All in all, it was a week to be remembered by everyone.

Here it is another June

But there was never one like this
for you, the members of the Class of '71.
You stand on the first of many

need to look back, that trail has been climbed.
Look at the horizon, those peaks are
equally attainable.

*That's the OLD NATIONAL BANK OF WASHINGTON, y'know!

Here it is another June

But there was never one like this
for you, the members of the Class of '71.
You stand on the first of many pinnacles that will be coming in sight. No
need to look back, that trail has been climbed.
Look at the horizon, those peaks are
equally attainable.
May you travel among friends.

NATIONAL BANK OF WASHINGTON / TACOMA, WASHINGTON / MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION
From the winds of the North and the South
They gathered as unto strife;
They breathed upon his mouth,
They filled his body with life;
Eyesight and speech they wrought
For the veils of the soul therein,
A time for labour and thought,
A time to serve and to sin;
They gave him light in his ways,
And love, and a space for delight,
And beauty and the length of days,
And night, and sleep in the night.
His speech a burning fire;
With his lips he travaileth.
In his heart is a blind desire,
In his eyes foreknowledge of death;
He weaves, and is clothed with derision;
Sows, and he shall not reap;
His life is a watch or a vision
Between a sleep and a sleep.
